

Masterclass with Arjun

Actor Arjun Kapoor will join the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM) to discuss 'The Future of Cinema'. "The masterclass is about the future of cinema and I'm looking forward to exchanging notes and thoughts with the other members on the panel and, importantly, with the audiences," says the actor.

During the session, he will discuss the change in the storytelling template and how members of the film fraternity are finding their feet through the shifting tiles. The hour-long panel discussion will be held at Arts Centre Melbourne on August 11. The other members of the panel include filmmaker Onir, Ajit Andhare of Viacom18 Studios and Gaurav Verma of Red Chillies Entertainment, among others.

"This diverse panel of speakers, each with an incredible body of work, is what Indian cinema is about today. This is my first time at the festival and I'm looking forward to meeting people from Australia who watch Indian cinema," adds Arjun.

IFFM will be held from August 8 to 17.
