

ARJUN'S MELBOURNE 'MASTERCLASS'

ARJUN KAPOOR will attend the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne as part of a panel discussion on the future of cinema.

The young actor has been skillfully navigating stardom in times of OTT platforms and social media. Kapoor's masterclass on August 11, to be moderated by Rajeev Masand, will discuss the changes in storytelling and how filmmakers are finding their feet through this shift.

The panel also has Ajit Andhare of Viacom18 Motion Pictures, Gaurav Verma - Business Head of Red Chillies Entertainment and filmmaker Onir.

—Mail Today Bureau