In 10th Year, IFFM To Have Courage As Theme

By Agencies — Last updated May 28, 2019

The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM), which will celebrate a decade this year, will have 'courage' as its central theme.

The 2019 edition will be held from August 8-17.

IFFM was inceptioned in 2010 and was founded by its director, Mitu Bhowmick Lange. In 2012, the Victorian government and Film Victoria board officially backed the festival.

Lange said in a statement: 'We are elated that as an institution promoting indian films in the Aussie land, we are celebrating our tenth year. It has been an exciting journey till this point and I'm most thankful to the film industry in India who have extended their kind support to our festival.

'I'm also grateful to Film Victoria and the Victorian government to have been giving us their faith and endless support to help grow a diverse friendship between India and Australia basis a common love for films.

We have always been and continue being committed to unification of stories that induce inclusiveness and showcase diversity. (IANS)

The theme of this year festival is 'courage'. Courage as a term has come to be true to cinema, especially in the last few years. Be it on screen and off, Indian cinema's content has chosen to tell stories of subjects, which have been brave, tough and have given us some heroic icons. The theme is in lieu with a celebration of this element of modern day cinema, which will be celebrated at the 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne.

Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is returning for its 10th chapter from August 8 to 17 and will celebrate "courage" as its central theme while offering a bouquet of stories dealing with tough issues, says festival director Mitu Bhowmick Lange.

The festival, which was conceptualised in 2010, has seen cinema stalwarts such as Amitabh Bachchan, Priyanka Chopra, Vidya Balan, Kangana Ranaut, Rajkumar Hirani, Kabir Khan, Nikkhil Advani, Rani Mukerji, Freida Pinto, Richa Chadha, Konkona Sensharma and Ali Fazal as attendees.

"We are looking forward to another year of celebrating Indian cinema here in Melbourne. The festival has grown from strength to strength. This has been a tremendous journey for us so far as an institution. I'm glad that we are moving into our decade long promise and promotion of Indian cinema down under.

"Courage has been chosen as our theme to celebrate films of diversity and strong storytelling. Our message and intent has always been to promote cinema beyond any boundaries," Lange said in a statement.

She said the festival has found support not only from the Indian film industry but also from Film Victoria and the Victorian government.

"We have always been and continue being committed to unification of stories that induce inclusiveness and showcase diversity. This year as we commence our 10th annual festival, we are gearing to celebrate our core theme of courage and we are elated to be welcoming another annual period of celebrating Indian cinema," she added.

Helmed by the Victorian government, Australia, the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is coming back in 2019 and will be taking place in the cultural city between 8th to 17th August. Bollywood superstar Shah Rukh Khan will be the chief guest of the annual celebration of Indian films.

The festival in its 10 years has grown pillar to pillar and has gone from being a grassroots festival to a government supported one and an awardee of several global accolades, making it the biggest Indian Film Festival in the Southern Hemisphere. This year the festival is set to celebrate the central theme of 'courage', which is engraved in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business.

King Khan as he's admirably referred to globally will be opening the festival officially on the 8th of August, 2019 along with the other festival guests and in the company of the 'Premiere of Victoria' and Mitu Bhowmick Lange, the director of the esteemed festival.

Shah Rukh Khan, said, "I'm honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest. An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies. I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema".

Director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange said, "We are so elated with the news of Mr. Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look upto. The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne has always strived to bring the best Indian cinema here in Melbourne and bridge a gap between the fans and the actors whom people love and admire. We are looking forward to hosting Mr. Khan in Melbourne."

MELBOURNE: Superstar Shah Rukh Khan will be the chief guest at this year's Indian Film Festival of Melbourne, the festival organisers announced Thursday. Helmed by the Victorian government, Australia, the IFFM is back for its 10th edition in the cultural city and will celebrate "courage" as its central theme.

Khan said he is honoured and delighted to accept the invitation.

"An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies.

"I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for 'Chak De! India' in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema," the actor said in a statement.

Khan will open the IFFM on August 8 along with the other festival guests and in the company of Victorian Premier Daniel Andrews and festival director Mitu Bhowmick Lange.

Andrews said he is looking forward to having the Indian actor as part of the festival.

"This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan here, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet," he said.

"The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria. Perhaps we'll even lure Shah Rukh back to our shores again," Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley added.

Lange said the team is excited to host Khan in the city.

"He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions of people look up to. We are looking forward to hosting Mr Khan in Melbourne," she said.

The festival will run through August 17.

शाहरुख खान बनेंगे 10वें भारतीय फिल्म महोत्सव के चीफ गेस्ट, 8 अगस्त को मेलबर्न में होगा आगाज

1 बॉलीवुड

Updated Jun 13, 2019 | 14:05 IST | टाइम्स नॉव इंडिया

शाहरुख खान 8 अगस्त, 2019 को अन्य अतिथियों के साथ आधिकारिक रूप से भारतीय फिल्म महोत्सव 2019 की शुरुआत करेंगे। शाहरुख इस महोत्सव से आमंत्रण पाकर काफी खुश और सम्मानित महसूस कर रहे हैं...

ऑस्ट्रेलिया की विक्टोरियन सरकार द्वारा संचालित, मेलबर्न का भारतीय फिल्म महोत्सव 2019 में शुरू हो रहा है जो 8 से 17 अगस्त तक कल्पारल सिटी में रखा जाएगा। भारतीय फिल्मों के वार्षिक उत्सव के मुख्य अतिथि के रूप में बॉलीवुड एक्टर शाहरुख खान उपस्थित रहेंगे। पिछले 10 साल में ये फेस्टिवल सीढ़ी दर सीढ़ी बढ़ते हुए पूर्णतः विकसित होकर स्वसे बड़ा भारतीय फिल्म महोत्सव बन चुका है। इस साल प्रोग्राम की सेटल थीम साहस पर बेस्ट है। शाहरुख खान अन्य अतिथियों के साथ 8 अगस्त, 2019 को आधिकारिक रूप से इस त्योहार की शुरुआत करेंगे। प्रीमियर विक्टोरिया और इस प्रतिष्ठित त्योहार के निर्देशक मीतू भौमिक लांग भी शाहरुख के साथ होंगे।

शाहरुख खान ने इस फंक्शन के बारे में कहा, 'मैं मुख्य अतिथि के रूप में इस त्योहार की शुरुआत के लिए विक्टोरियन सरकार और मेलबर्न के भारतीय फिल्म महोत्सव से आमंत्रण पाकर काफी खुश और सम्मानित महसूस कर रहा हूँ। हमारी डलनी बड़ी और विविधता वाली इंडस्ट्री का जन्म खूब जोश और उत्साह के साथ मनाए जाने योग्य है, और यही तो फेस्टिवल का मतलब है। मैं इस साल इस उत्सव के विषय साहस को लेकर विशेष रूप से खुश हूँ।'

Every year, one of the leading film celebrities head to Australia to attend the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne held during the month of August. During their visit, the celebrities hoist the Indian National Flag in the presence of many Indians and other dignitaries as a part of the festival. From the past few years, we have seen celebrities namely Aishwarya Rai Bachchan and Rani Mukerji being a part of IFFM much to the excitement of their fans in Australia.

This year, the chief guest of the 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is none other than Shah Rukh Khan! Yes, the superstar has been invited to the festival and he will be attending it between August 8, 2019, to August 17, 2019. Sharing his excitement, SRK stated, "I'm honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest. The industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies."

He added, "I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De! India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema."

Meanwhile, on the work front, SRK was last seen in Aanand L Rai's Zero which released in December 2018.

The festival in its tenth year has grown from a grassroots level to a government-supported festival.

Shah Rukh Khan.

Mumbai: Shah Rukh Khan has been invited by the government of Victoria as the chief guest for 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. The tenth edition of the festival will be held in Cultural City from August 8 to August 17.

"I am feeling very happy and honoured to be invited by the Victorian Government as a chief guest," said Shah Rukh.

The festival in its tenth year has grown from a grassroots level to a government-supported festival. With many global admirers, the festival has become the largest Indian film festival of the Southern Hemisphere.

Helmed by Victorian Government of Australia, the theme for this year's festival is 'courage', a speciality that is entrenched in the inclusion and diversity of Indian film business.

"I am particularly happy with this year's theme 'courage'. Courage is feeling that resonates with the storytellers who actually have the potential to change society and the world," said Shah Rukh.

"An industry of this magnitude and diversity deserve to be celebrated with enthusiasm and fervour and this is what the Festival embodies," Shah Rukh added.

"I have good memories of shooting 'Chak De! India' in Melbourne and I am keen to celebrate Indian cinema again this time," said the superstar.

King Khan, who is admired globally, will be officially opening the festival on August 8, 2019, along with 'Premier of Victoria' Daniel Andrews and the director of the festival Mitu Bhowmick Lange.

SHAH RUKH KHAN TO GRACE THE 10TH INDIAN FILM FESTIVAL OF MELBOURNE AS A CHIEF GUEST!

SRK has been invited for the 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne.

DIVYA RAMRANI JUNE 13 2019, 3:55 PM

Shah Rukh Khan is a global phenomenon and we don't really need to prove it. Well, the Zero actor is yet to sign a film, but that, in no way, has affected his fan following. Now, SRK, who is fondly called as the King Khan of Bollywood, is all set to attend the 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne, and, that too, as a chief guest. At the festival, King Khan is also going to get honoured for his immense contribution to the Indian film industry.

Shah Rukh Khan, in his latest statement, expressed his happiness on getting such privilege. He said, "I'm honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest. An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies."

He added, "I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema."

Martin Foley, the Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley, said in his statement, "A celebration of film, community and culture, the Indian Film Festival puts Melbourne in the spotlight and attracts more than 35,000 people each year. The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria. Perhaps we'll even lure Shahrukh back to our shores again!"

The 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is expected to go on from August 8 to August 12 this year. In the past, various Bollywood stars like Rani Mukerji, Aishwarya Rai Bachchan, Vidya Balan and others have been a part of this festival.

Melbourne, June 13 (IANS) Superstar Shah Rukh Khan will be the chief guest at the 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne.

Held by the government of the state of Victoria, the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne will be taking place between August 8-17.

This year the festival is set to celebrate the central theme of 'courage', which is engrained in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business.

King Khan, as he's admirably referred to globally, will be opening the festival officially on August 8 along with the other festival guests and in the company of the 'Premier of Victoria' and Mitu Bhowmick Lange, the Director of the festival.

Shah Rukh feels honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest.

"An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies," Shah Rukh said in a statement.

"I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world.

"I have had great memories of shooting for 'Chak De! India' in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema," he added.

Announcing the news, Daniel Andrews, the Premier of Victoria, said: "The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is a much-loved event that celebrates the strong relationship between Victoria and India and our own vibrant Indian community.

"This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan here, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet."

Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley said: "A celebration of film, community and culture, the Indian Film Festival puts Melbourne in the spotlight and attracts more than 35,000 people each year.

"The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria."

Director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange, added: "We are so elated with the news of Mr. Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look upto."

Bollywood superstar Shah Rukh Khan will be gracing this year's Indian Film Festival of Melbourne as the festival's chief guest. The announcement was made by festival organisers on Thursday. Shah Rukh Khan said that he is honoured and delighted to accept the invitation.

"An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies."

Shah Rukh Khan, Actor

The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is back for its 10th edition. Its central theme being "courage". Shah Rukh Khan will be opening the festival on 8 August along with other guests and in the company of Victorian Premier Daniel Andrews and festival director Mitu Bhowmick Lange.

"I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De! India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema," the actor added in a statement.

Naturally, the organisers are looking forward to having an Indian actor at the festival.

The festival has also announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to make more Indian film productions accessible in Victoria. Calling Shah Rukh Khan "an icon of Indian cinema internationally", the festival organisers said that they're excited and looking forward to hosting SRK in the city.

The festival will go on from 9 August to 17 August.

Shah Rukh Khan was last seen in Anand L. Rai's Zero, alongside Anushka Sharma and Katrina Kaif. Next up, Shah Rukh Khan will be seen on American talk show host David Letterman's couch. The actor recently flew to the USA to film the same. David Letterman was also recently spotted at SRK's house in Mumbai on Eid.

King Khan as he's admirably referred to globally will be opening the festival officially on August 8, 2019 along with the other festival guests and in the company of the 'Premiere of Victoria' and Mitu Bhowmick Lange, the director of the esteemed festival.

The festival in its 10 years has grown pillar to pillar and has gone from being a grassroots festival to a government supported one and an awardee of several global accolades, making it the biggest Indian Film Festival in the Southern Hemisphere. This year the festival is set to celebrate the central theme of 'courage', which is engraved in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business.

Shah Rukh Khan, said, "I'm honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest. An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies. I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema".

Director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange said, "We are so elated with the news of Mr Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look upto. The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne has always strived to bring the best Indian cinema here in Melbourne and bridge a gap between the fans and the actors whom people love and admire. We are looking forward to hosting Mr Khan in Melbourne."

I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema."

Announcing the news, the Victorian Premier, the Honourable Daniel Andrews said, "The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is a much-loved event that celebrates the strong relationship between Victoria and India and our own vibrant Indian community. This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan here, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet."

Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley said, "A celebration of film, community and culture, the Indian Film Festival puts Melbourne in the spotlight and attracts more than 35,000 people each year. The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria. Perhaps we'll even lure Shahrukh back to our shores again!"

Concluding the thoughts, director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange said, "We are so elated with the news of Mr. Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look upto. The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne has always strived to bring the best Indian cinema here in Melbourne and bridge a gap between the fans and the actors whom people love and admire. We are looking forward to hosting Mr. Khan in Melbourne."

Helmed by the Victorian government, Australia, the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is coming back with a new edition in 2019. The event will be taking place in the cultural city between August 8 and 17, 2019. Honouring the festival with his presence as the chief guest of the annual celebration of Indian films will be the Indian actor and superstar, Shah Rukh Khan.

The festival in its 10 years has grown from being a grassroots festival to a government supported one and an awardee of several global accolades, making it the biggest Indian Film Festival in the Southern Hemisphere. This year the festival is set to celebrate the central theme of 'courage', which is engraved in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business.

Talking about the same, Shah Rukh Khan, said, "I'm honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest. An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies. I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema".

Sharing the excitement about the same, Mitu Bhowmick Lange, Director of the festival, said, "We are so elated with the news of Mr. Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look upto. The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne has always strived to bring the best Indian cinema here in Melbourne and bridge a gap between the fans and the actors whom people love and admire. We are looking forward to hosting Mr. Khan in Melbourne."

Shah Rukh will be opening the festival officially along with the other festival guests on August 8, 2019.

मेलबर्न में होने वाले 'भारतीय फिल्म फेस्टिवल' को 'मेलबर्न फिल्म फेस्टिवल' के नाम से भी जाना जाता है। शाहरुख खान ने बतौर मुख्य अतिथि फिल्म फेस्टिवल का आमंत्रण मिलने पर खुशी जाहिर की। शाहरुख ने इस बारे में कहा, 'मेलबर्न में आयोजित भारतीय फिल्म फेस्टिवल में मैं चीफ गेस्ट के तौर पर आमंत्रण मिलने को लेकर काफी सम्मानित महसूस कर रहा हूँ।'

शाहरुख खान ने आगे कहा, 'हमारी इतनी बड़ी फिल्म इंडस्ट्री का जश्न जोश और उत्साह से मनाया जाना चाहिए। यही तो फिल्म फेस्टिवल का मतलब होता है। मैं इस साल फेस्टिवल की थीम साहस को लेकर भी काफी खुश हूँ। साहस एक ऐसा शब्द है जो लेखकों के साथ दिखाई देता है, वो लेखक अपनी कलम से हकीकत में समाज और दुनिया को बदलने की क्षमता रखते हैं।'

इस दौरान शाहरुख खान ने अपनी फिल्म 'चक दे इंडिया' को भी याद किया। उन्होंने कहा, 'मेलबर्न में मेरी फिल्म चक दे इंडिया की शूटिंग हुई थी। उसकी बहुत सारी, बहुत अच्छी यादें अब तक मेरे दिल में बसी हैं। इस बार फिर से वहाँ भारतीय सिनेमा का जश्न मनाने के लिए मैं काफी एक्साइटेड हूँ।' बताते चलें कि 10वाँ 'भारतीय फिल्म फेस्टिवल' 8 अगस्त से 17 अगस्त तक चलेगा।

Superstar Shah Rukh Khan will attend the tenth edition of the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne as the chief guest. The film festival, supported by Australia's Victorian government, will be held from 8 - 17 August.

This year's central theme is courage, which is "engraved in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business" according to a press release from the festival.

Khan will open the festival on 8 August along with the Victorian premier, Daniel Andrews. The superstar said in a statement, "An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies. I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world."

"I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De! India [2007] in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema," Khan added.

The Indo-Australian festival has grown exponentially in the last decade. It has graduated from a grassroots festival to one being supported by the government. It is the largest Indian film festival in the southern hemisphere.

Martin Foley, minister for creative industries, announced an initiative to welcome more Indian productions to shoot their movies in the country. He said in a statement, "A celebration of film, community, and culture, the Indian Film Festival puts Melbourne in the spotlight and attracts more than 35,000 people each year. The Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria. Perhaps we'll even lure Shah Rukh back to our shores again!"

The director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange, was elated to have Khan as their chief guest and hosting him at the festival. She stated, "He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions follow and look up to. The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne has always strived to bring the best Indian cinema here and bridge a gap between the fans and the actors whom people love and admire."

Superstar Shah Rukh Khan will be the chief guest at the 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne.

Helmed by the government of the state of Victoria, the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne will be taking place between August 8-17.

This year the festival is set to celebrate the central theme of 'courage', which is engraved in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business.

King Khan, as he's admirably referred to globally, will be opening the festival officially on August 8 along with the other festival guests and in the company of the 'Premier of Victoria' and Mitu Bhowmick Lange, the Director of the festival.

Shah Rukh feels honored and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest.

"An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies," Shah Rukh said in a statement.

"I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world.

"I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De! India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema," he added.

Announcing the news, Daniel Andrews, the Premier of Victoria, said: "The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is a much-loved event that celebrates the strong relationship between Victoria and India and our own vibrant Indian community.

"This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan here, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet."

Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley said: "A celebration of film, community, and culture, the Indian Film Festival puts Melbourne in the spotlight and attracts more than 35,000 people each year.

"The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria."

Director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange, added: "We are so elated with the news of Mr. Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look up to."

Shah Rukh Khan To Be The 'Chief Guest' At 'Indian Film Festival Of Melbourne'

T3 News Network 13 June 2019

The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is coming back in 2019 and will be taking place in the cultural city between August 8 -17, 2019. The Chief Guest of the annual celebration of the event is Indian actor and superstar, Shah Rukh Khan.

The festival in its 10 years has grown pillar to pillar and has gone from being a grassroots festival to a government supported one and an awardee of several global accolades, making it the biggest Indian Film Festival in the Southern Hemisphere. This year the festival is set to celebrate the central theme of 'courage', which is engraved in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business.

Speaking on being appointed as the chief guest for the festival, Khan, said, "I'm honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest. An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies. I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema".

Announcing the news, Daniel Andrews, the Victorian Premier, said: "The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is a much-loved event that celebrates the strong relationship between Victoria and India and our own vibrant Indian community. This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan here, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet."

Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley said: "A celebration of film, community and culture, the Indian Film Festival puts Melbourne in the spotlight and attracts more than 35,000 people each year. The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria. Perhaps we'll even lure Shah back to our shores again!"

Concluding the thoughts, Director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange said, "We are so elated with the news of Mr. Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look upto. The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne has always strived to bring the best Indian cinema here in Melbourne and bridge a gap between the fans and the actors whom people love and admire. We are looking forward to hosting Mr. Khan in Melbourne."

Shah Rukh Khan has been invited by the government of Victoria as the chief guest for 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. The tenth edition of the festival will be held in Cultural City from August 8 to August 17.

"I am feeling very happy and honoured to be invited by the Victorian Government as a chief guest," said Shah Rukh.

The festival in its tenth year has grown from a grassroots level to a government-supported festival. With many global admirers, the festival has become the largest Indian film festival of the Southern Hemisphere.

Helmed by Victorian Government of Australia, the theme for this year's festival is 'courage', a speciality that is entrenched in the inclusion and diversity of Indian film business.

"I am particularly happy with this year's theme 'courage'. Courage is feeling that resonates with the storytellers who actually have the potential to change society and the world," said Shah Rukh. "An industry of this magnitude and diversity deserve to be celebrated with enthusiasm and fervour and this is what the Festival embodies," Shah Rukh added.

"I have good memories of shooting 'Chak De! India' in Melbourne and I am keen to celebrate Indian cinema again this time," said the superstar.

King Khan, who is admired globally, will be officially opening the festival on August 8, 2019, along with 'Premier of Victoria' Del Andrews and the director of the festival Mitu Bhowmick Lange.

मेलबर्न इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल के मुख्य अतिथि होंगे शाहरुख खान

मुंबई डेस्क, अमर उजाला Updated Thu, 13 Jun 2019 11:06 PM IST

अगस्त के दूसरे हफ्ते में होने जा रहे मेलबर्न के इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल के इस बार जबर्दस्त तैयारियां चल रही हैं। शाहरुख खान ने इस फेस्टिवल का मुख्य अतिथि बनने के लिए हां कर दी है। यह फेस्टिवल 8 अगस्त से शुरू होकर 17 अगस्त तक चलेगा। इस बारे में शाहरुख खान कहते हैं, 'मैं मुख्य अतिथि के रूप में इस फेस्टिवल का आमंत्रण पाकर काफी खुश और सम्मानित महसूस कर रहा हूं। हमारी इतनी बड़ी और विविधता वाली इंडस्ट्री का जश्न खूब जोश और उत्साह के साथ मनाए यहां मनाया जाता है। मैं इस साल इस फेस्टिवल के विषय 'साहस' को लेकर विशेष रूप से खुश हूं।

साहस एक ऐसी भावना है जो उन कहानीकारों को कुछ बड़ा लिखने का मौका देती है जो वास्तव में समाज और दुनिया को बदलने की क्षमता रखते हैं। मेरे मन में मेलबर्न में चक दे इंडिया की शूटिंग की बहुत अच्छी सी यादें अब तक बसी हैं।'

Khan will open the IFFM on August 8 along with the other festival guests and in the company of Victorian Premier Daniel Andrews and festival director Mitu Bhowmick Lange.

Andrews said he is looking forward to having the Indian actor as part of the festival. "This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan here, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet," he added.

Khan is looking forward to being back to Melbourne to celebrate Indian cinema. Earlier, several actors like Rani Mukerji, Vidya Balan, Aishwarya Rai Bachchan and Rishi Kapoor have remained a part of the film festival. On the work front, Khan is busy with shooting for Ted Talks on Star Plus. Just like the first season, the actor will be hosting the second season.

Helmed by the Victorian government, Australia, the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is coming back in 2019 and will be taking place in the cultural city between 8th to 17th August

Mumbai (UrduPoint / Pakistan Point News / Online - 13th June, 2019) Helmed by the Victorian government, Australia, the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is coming back in 2019 and will be taking place in the cultural city between 8th to 17th August.

Honouring the festival with his presence as the chief guest of the annual celebration of Indian films will be the Indian actor and superstar, Shah Rukh Khan. The festival in its 10 years has grown pillar to pillar and has gone from being a grassroots festival to a government supported one and an awardee of several global accolades, making it the biggest Indian Film Festival in the Southern Hemisphere.

This year the festival is set to celebrate the central theme of 'courage', which is engraved in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business. King Khan, as he's admirably referred to globally, will be opening the festival officially on the 8th of August, 2019 along with the other festival guests and in the company of the Premiere of Victoria and Mitu Bhowmick Lange, the director of the esteemed festival. Shah Rukh Khan, said, "I'm honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest.

An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies. I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world.

I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema". Director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange said, "We are so elated with the news of Mr.

Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look upto. The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne has always strived to bring the best Indian cinema here in Melbourne and bridge a gap between the fans and the actors whom people love and admire. We are looking forward to hosting Mr. Khan in Melbourne."

Superstar Shah Rukh Khan will be the chief guest at the 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne.

Held by the government of the state of Victoria, the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne will be taking place between August 8-17.

This year the festival is set to celebrate the central theme of 'courage', which is engraved in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business.

King Khan, as he's admirably referred to globally, will be opening the festival officially on August 8 along with the other festival guests and in the company of the 'Premier of Victoria' and Mitu Bhowmick Lange, the Director of the festival.

Shah Rukh feels honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest.

"An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies," Shah Rukh said in a statement.

"I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world.

"I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De! India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema," he added.

Announcing the news, Daniel Andrews, the Premier of Victoria, said: "The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is a much-loved event that celebrates the strong relationship between Victoria and India and our own vibrant Indian community.

"This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet."

Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley said: "A celebration of film, community and culture, the Indian Film Festival puts Melbourne in the spotlight and attracts more than 35,000 people each year.

"The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria."

Director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange, added: "We are so elated with the news of Mr. Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look upto."

Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley said: "A celebration of film, community and culture, the Indian Film Festival puts Melbourne in the spotlight and attracts more than 35,000 people each year. The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria. Perhaps we'll even lure Shah back to our shores again!"

Concluding the thoughts, director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange said, "We are so elated with the news of Mr. Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look upto. The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne has always strived to bring the best Indian cinema here in Melbourne and bridge a gap between the fans and the actors whom people love and admire. We are looking forward to hosting Mr. Khan in Melbourne."

The 10th edition of the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne will be held in the cultural city between 8th to 17th August. The festival, helmed by the Victorian government, will see Indian actor and superstar, Shah Rukh Khan in attendance. SRK will be honoring the festival as the chief guest of the annual celebration of Indian films.

The festival in its 10 years has grown strength to strength and has gone from being a grassroots festival to a government supported one. An awardee of several global accolades, it has become the biggest Indian Film Festival in the Southern Hemisphere.

This year, the festival is set to celebrate the central theme of courage, which is engraved in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business.

Shah Rukh will be opening the festival officially on the 8th of August, 2019 along with the other festival guests and in the company of the Premiere of Victoria and Mitu Bhowmick Lange, the director of the esteemed festival.

Shah Rukh Khan said,

“I’m honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest. An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies. I’m particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema”.

Director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange said,

“We are so elated with the news of Mr. Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He’s truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look upto. The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne has always strived to bring the best Indian cinema here in Melbourne and bridge a gap between the fans and the actors whom people love and admire. We are looking forward to hosting Mr. Khan in Melbourne.”

SRK To Join 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne as a chief guest

Published 2 weeks ago on June 13, 2019
By Ganesh Jain

A big news coming out there for the SRK Fans as he is called by the Victorian government, Australia, as the chief guest at the big time event called the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. The Film Festival is scheduled at the Australian Cultural city in between 8th to 17th August. King Khan would do the honors for the event. The fest has reached to its tenth year and has grown up all these years with the support of the Australian government and other bodies.

Every year we have this festival with a theme and the theme for 2019 is Courage, which talks about the diversity of the big Indian film industry. SRK would be reaching to Australia to inaugurate the event on 8th of August in the presence of the bigwigs of the event including the director of the festival Mitu Bhowmick Lange. Talking about the honor the actor said that he is honored to get the invitation by the Victorian government along with the Indian Film Festival Melbourne to be the chief guest.

He said the Indian film industry with a huge diversity should be celebrated with great fervor and spirits. He said that he is pleased with the theme chosen for this year and sure that that filmmakers from Indian Film industry would keep on giving strong social messages and thus remain the agent of change in the society. He said he had good memories of the country during the shooting of his film Chak De India and its time to celebrate the Indian Cinema. The director of the film festival was also pleased to hear this news that SRK has given his confirmation on this.

Superstar Shah Rukh Khan will be the chief guest at the 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. Helmed by the government of the state of Victoria, the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne will be taking place between August 8-17. This year the festival is set to celebrate the central theme of 'courage', which is engraved in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business.

King Khan, as he's admirably referred to globally, will be opening the festival officially on August 8 along with the other festival guests and in the company of the 'Premier of Victoria' and Mitu Bhowmick Lange, the Director of the festival.

Shah Rukh feels honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest.

"An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies," Shah Rukh said in a statement.

"I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for 'Chak De! India' in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema," he added.

Announcing the news, Daniel Andrews, the Premier of Victoria, said: "The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is a much-loved event that celebrates the strong relationship between Victoria and India and our own vibrant Indian community.

"This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan here, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet."

Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley said: "A celebration of film, community and culture, the Indian Film Festival puts Melbourne in the spotlight and attracts more than 35,000 people each year.

"The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria."

Director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange, added: "We are so elated with the news of Mr. Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look upto."

मेलबर्न / बॉलीवुड / निर्धन-मसाला

मेलबर्न में होने वाला भारतीय फिल्म फेस्टिवल 2019 जल्द ही शुरू होने का रहा है। फेस्टिवल की शुरुआत 8 अगस्त से हो रही है और यह 17 अगस्त तक चलेगा। बॉलीवुड के सुपरस्टार शाहरुख खान इस बार मेलबर्न में होने वाले इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल के चौक गेस्ट होंगे।

शाहरुख खान ही इस फेस्टिवल को अतिथिगोष्ठी शुरू करेंगे। शाहरुख ने इससे पहले फिल्म 'चक दे इंडिया' की शूटिंग भी मेलबर्न में की थी। इस साल इस उत्सव की थीम 'साहस' निर्धारित की गई है।

शाहरुख इस फेस्टिवल में बतौर चौक गेस्ट बुलाए जाने पर सम्मानित महसूस कर रहे हैं। शाहरुख खान ने कहा, मैं मुख्य अतिथि के रूप में इस फेस्टिवल की शुरुआत के लिए विभवादिन साकार और मेलबर्न के इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल से आमरण पाकर काफी खुश और सम्मानित महसूस कर रहा हूँ।

शाहरुख खान ने कहा कि हमारी इतनी बड़ी और विविधता वाली इंडस्ट्री का जन्म जौध और उत्साह के साथ मनाए जाने योग्य है और यही तो फेस्टिवल का मूलबन्ध है। मैं इस साल इस फेस्टिवल के थीम 'साहस' को लेकर खासतौर पर खुश हूँ। साहस एक ऐसी भावना है, जो उन राष्ट्रों के साथ रिस्पेक्ट होती है, जो बावजूब में समाज और दुनिया को बदलने की क्षमता रखते हैं।

शाहरुख खान ने अपनी फिल्म चक दे इंडिया को सादर हार्दिक शुभकामनाएं दीं कि मेलबर्न में 'चक दे इंडिया' की शूटिंग की बहुत अच्छी यादें अब तक मेरे दिमाग में बसी हैं और इस बार फिर से यहां भारतीय सिनेमा का जन्म मनाने के लिए मैं बहुत उत्सुक हूँ।

SHAH RUKH KHAN TO BE CHIEF GUEST AT 10TH INDIAN FILM FESTIVAL OF MELBOURNE

DIGITAL DESK - JUNE 13, 2019

Superstar Shah Rukh Khan will be the chief guest at this year's Indian Film Festival of Melbourne, the festival organisers announced Thursday.

Helmed by the Victorian government, Australia, the IFFM is back for its 10th edition in the cultural city and will celebrate "courage" as its central theme.

Khan said he is honoured and delighted to accept the invitation.

"An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies.

"I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for 'Chak De! India' in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema," the actor said in a statement.

Khan will open the IFFM on August 8 along with the other festival guests and in the company of Victorian Premier Daniel Andrews and festival director Mitu Bhowmick Lange. (PTI)

Shah Rukh Khan

MUMBAI: Shah Rukh Khan has been invited by the government of Victoria as the chief guest for 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. The tenth edition of the festival will be held in Cultural City from August 8 to August 17.

"I am feeling very happy and honoured to be invited by the Victorian Government as a chief guest," said Shah Rukh.

The festival in its tenth year has grown from a grassroots level to a government-supported festival. With many global admirers, the festival has become the largest Indian film festival of the Southern Hemisphere.

Helmed by Victorian Government of Australia, the theme for this year's festival is 'courage', a speciality that is entrenched in the inclusion and diversity of Indian film business.

"I am particularly happy with this year's theme 'courage'. Courage is feeling that resonates with the storytellers who actually have the potential to change society and the world," said Shah Rukh. "An industry of this magnitude and diversity deserve to be celebrated with enthusiasm and fervour and this is what the Festival embodies," Shah Rukh added.

"I have good memories of shooting 'Chak De! India' in Melbourne and I am keen to celebrate Indian cinema again this time," said the superstar.

King Khan, who is admired globally, will be officially opening the festival on August 8, 2019, along with 'Premier of Victoria' Daniel Andrews and the director of the festival Mitu Bhowmick Lange.

Shah Rukh Khan to be chief guest at film fest in Melbourne

Superstar Shah Rukh Khan will be the chief guest at the 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne.

Held by the government of the state of Victoria, the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne will be taking place between August 8-17.

This year the festival is set to celebrate the central theme of 'courage', which is engraved in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business.

King Khan, as he's admirably referred to globally, will be opening the festival officially on August 8 along with the other festival guests and in the company of the 'Premier of Victoria' and Mitu Bhowmick Lange, the Director of the festival.

Shah Rukh feels honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest.

"An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies," Shah Rukh said in a statement.

"I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world.

"I have had great memories of shooting for 'Chak De! India' in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema," he added.

Announcing the news, Daniel Andrews, the Premier of Victoria, said: "The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is a much-loved event that celebrates the strong relationship between Victoria and India and our own vibrant Indian community.

"This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan here, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet."

Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley said: "A celebration of film, community and culture, the Indian Film Festival puts Melbourne in the spotlight and attracts more than 35,000 people each year.

"The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria."

Director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange, added: "We are so elated with the news of Mr. Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look upto."

मेलबर्न। अभिनेता शाहरुख खान मेलबर्न के 10वें इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल में मुख्य अतिथि के तौर पर शिरकत करेंगे।

विकटोरिया राज्य सरकार द्वारा इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल का आयोजन मेलबर्न में 8 से 17 अगस्त के बीच किया जाएगा।

इस साल फेस्टिवल की केंद्रीय थीम 'हौसला' है।

किंग खान के नाम से मशहूर शाहरुख आधिकारिक रूप से 8 अगस्त को अन्य अतिथियों और फेस्टिवल निदेशक मीतू भीमिक लाने के साथ आयोजन का उद्घाटन करेंगे।

वह नौते से खुद को सम्मानित महसूस कर रहे हैं।

उन्होंने बयान दिया, "इस साल फेस्टिवल की थीम 'हौसला' से मैं काफी आनंदित हूँ।" (आईएनएस)

Melbourne: Superstar Shah Rukh Khan will be the chief guest at the 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. Helmed by the government of the state of Victoria, the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne will be taking place between August 8-17.

This year the festival is set to celebrate the central theme of 'courage', which is engraved in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business.

King Khan, as he's admirably referred to globally, will be opening the festival officially on August 8 along with the other festival guests and in the company of the 'Premier of Victoria' and Mitu Bhowmick Lange, the Director of the festival.

Shah Rukh feels honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest.

"An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies," Shah Rukh said in a statement.

"I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world.

"I have had great memories of shooting for 'Chak De! India' in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema," he added.

Announcing the news, Daniel Andrews, the Premier of Victoria, said: "The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is a much-loved event that celebrates the strong relationship between Victoria and India and our own vibrant Indian community.

"This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan here, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet."

Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley said: "A celebration of film, community and culture, the Indian Film Festival puts Melbourne in the spotlight and attracts more than 35,000 people each year.

"The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria."

Director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange, added: "We are so elated with the news of Mr. Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look upto."

Shahrukh Khan To Be Chief Visitor At 10th Indian Movie Competition Of Melbourne

Information

oi-Swikriti Srivastava

Famous person Shah Rukh Khan would be the chief visitor at this yr's Indian Movie Competition of Melbourne, the competition organisers introduced Thursday. Helmed by the Victorian authorities, Australia, the IFFM is again for its 10th version within the cultural metropolis and can have a good time "courage" as its central theme. Khan mentioned he's honoured and delighted to just accept the invitation.

"An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies. I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for 'Chak De! India' in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema," the actor mentioned in a press release.

Khan will open the IFFM on August eight together with the opposite competition visitors and within the firm of Victorian Premier Daniel Andrews and competition director Mitu Bhowmick Lange.

Andrews mentioned he's wanting ahead to having the Indian actor as a part of the competition. "This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan here, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet," he mentioned.

"The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria. Perhaps we'll even lure Shah Rukh back to our shores again," Minister for Artistic Industries Martin Foley added.

Lange mentioned the crew is worked up to host Khan within the metropolis. "He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look up to. We are looking forward to hosting Mr Khan in Melbourne," she mentioned.

The competition will run by August 17.

Shah Rukh Khan will be chief guest of IFFM 2019

June 13, 2019

Melbourne: This August as the city's much loved Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM) gets underway, one couldn't have asked for a much better gift than Shah Rukh Khan, the Baadshah of Bollywood, as the chief guest. So yes, the Indian Bollywood superstar is coming to town!

As the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne enters its tenth sweet year, the level of excitement is really high as this much-loved festival keeps setting its own benchmark year after year. Helmed by the Victorian government, the festival will take place between August 8 to 17. Khan, who has many titles to his name – King Khan, Baadshah or King of Bollywood, King of Romance – will be opening the festival officially on the August 8 along with the other festival guests and in the company of the Premier of Victoria Daniel Andrew and Festival director Mitu Bhovmick Lange.

Speaking on being appointed as the chief guest for the festival, Khan, said, "I'm honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest. An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies."

"I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema".

Announcing the news, Premier Daniel Andrews said, "The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is a much-loved event that celebrates the strong relationship between Victoria and India and our own vibrant Indian community. This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan here, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet."

Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley said, "A celebration of film, community and culture, the Indian Film Festival puts Melbourne in the spotlight and attracts more than 35,000 people each year. The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria. Perhaps we will even lure Shah Rukh Khan back to our shores again!"

Festival director Lange said, "We are so elated with the news of Mr Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a global icon, who millions and millions follow and look up to. The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne has always strived to bring the best of cinema from India and the sub-continent here in Melbourne and bridge a gap between the fans and the actors whom people love and admire. We are looking forward to hosting Mr Khan in Melbourne."

The festival in its 10 years has grown pillar to pillar and has gone from being a grassroots festival to a government supported one and an awardee of several global accolades, making it the biggest Indian Film Festival in the Southern Hemisphere. This year the festival is set to celebrate the central theme of 'courage', which is engraved in the inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film business.

भारतीय सुपरस्टार शाहरुख खान मेलबर्न के 10वें भारतीय फिल्म महोत्सव के मुख्य अतिथि होंगे!

स्ट्रेलिया की विक्टोरियन सरकार द्वारा संचालित, मेलबर्न का भारतीय फिल्म महोत्सव 2019 में शुरू हो रहा है जो 8 से 17 अगस्त तक कल्चरल सिटी में रखा जाएगा।

भारतीय फिल्मों के वार्षिक उत्सव के मुख्य अतिथि के रूप में भारतीय अभिनेता और सुपरस्टार शाहरुख खान अपनी उपस्थिति से फेस्टिवल का मान बढ़ाएंगे।

पिछले 10 वर्षों में ये फेस्टिवल सिद्धी दर सिद्धी बढ़ते हुए पूर्णतः विकसित हो कर एक जमीनी स्तर के फेस्टिवल से अब एक सरकार द्वारा समर्थित और कई ग्लोबल प्रशंसा हासिल करने वाला दक्षिणी गोलार्ध का सबसे बड़ा भारतीय फिल्म महोत्सव बन चुका है। इस वर्ष इस उत्सव की सेंट्रल थीम 'साहस' निर्धारित की गई है, ऐसी खासियत जो भारतीय फिल्म व्यवसाय की समावेशिता और विविधता में कूट कूट कर बसी है।

किंग खान जिन्हें वैश्विक स्तर पर काफी माना जाता है, वे अन्य अतिथियों के साथ 8 अगस्त, 2019 को आधिकारिक रूप से इस त्योहार की शुरुआत करेंगे और 'प्रीमियर विक्टोरिया' और इस प्रतिष्ठित त्योहार के निदेशक मीतू भौमिक लांग भी उनके साथ होंगे।

शाहरुख खान ने कहा, "मैं मुख्य अतिथि के रूप में इस त्योहार की शुरुआत के लिए विक्टोरियन सरकार और मेलबर्न के भारतीय फिल्म महोत्सव से आमंत्रण पाकर काफी खुश और सम्मानित महसूस कर रहा हूँ। हमारी इतनी बड़ी और विविधता वाली इंडस्ट्री का जश्न खूब जोश और उत्साह के साथ मनाए जाने योग्य है, और यही तो फेस्टिवल का मतलब है। मैं इस साल इस उत्सव के विषय 'साहस' को लेकर विशेष रूप से खुश हूँ, साहस एक ऐसी भावना है जो उन कहानीकारों के साथ प्रतिध्वनित होती है जो वास्तव में समाज और दुनिया को बदलने की क्षमता रखते हैं। मेलबर्न में चक दे इंडिया की शूटिंग की बहुत अच्छी यादें अब तक मेरे दिल में बसी हैं और इस बार फिर से यहां भारतीय सिनेमा का जश्न मनाने के लिए मैं बहुत उत्सुक हूँ।"

बॉलीवुड सुपरस्टार शाहरुख खान (Shah Rukh Khan) मेलबर्न के 10वें इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल के चीफ गेस्ट होंगे। ये फिल्म फेस्टिवल 8-17 अगस्त तक होगा। इसे विक्टोरिया सरकार आयोजित कर रही है। इस साल फेस्टिवल का थीम 'साहस' है।

इंडिया टीवी न्यूज़ डॉट कॉम के अनुसार, शाहरुख 8 अगस्त को दूसरे मेहमानों के साथ फेस्टिवल की शुरुआत करेंगे। इस फेस्टिवल के डायरेक्टर मीतू भौमिक लेंज हैं। शाहरुख इस फेस्टिवल में बतौर चीफ गेस्ट बुलाए जाने पर सम्मानित महसूस कर रहे हैं।

उन्होंने एक बयान में कहा- "इस साल के थीम से मैं बहुत खुश हूँ। साहस एक भावना है, जो समाज और दुनिया को बदलने वालों में होती है। मेरे पास मेलबर्न में चक दे इंडिया की शूटिंग के दौरान की बहुत सी यादें हैं। एक बार फिर वहाँ भारतीय सिनेमा को सेलिब्रेट करने के लिए जाने के लिए मैं उत्साहित हूँ।"

इस खबर की घोषणा करते हुए प्रीमियर ऑफ विक्टोरिया, डेनियल एंड्रसूज ने कहा- "मेलबर्न के इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल को बहुत प्यार मिलता है। ये विक्टोरिया और भारत के बीच के संबंध को सेलिब्रेट करता है। पिछले एक दशक में ये फेस्टिवल बहुत आगे बढ़ा है और इस बार शाहरुख खान की मौजूदगी इसे और भव्य बना देगी।"

मिला बड़ा सम्मान... शाहरुख खान मेलबर्न के 10वें इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल में होंगे मुख्य अतिथि

June 13, 2019 / pallawi

New Delhi: अभिनेता Shah Rukh Khan मेलबर्न के 10वें इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल में मुख्य अतिथि के तौर पर शिरकत करेंगे। महोत्सव के आयोजकों ने गुरुवार को इसकी घोषणा की है। शाहरुख के लिए यह वाकई बड़ा सम्मान है। इससे पहले, रानी मुखर्जी, विद्या बालन, ऐश्वर्या राय बच्चन और ऋषि कपूर जैसी लोकप्रिय बॉलीवुड हस्तियां उत्सव का हिस्सा बन चुकी हैं।

ऑस्ट्रेलिया की विक्टोरियन सरकार द्वारा इस फेस्टिवल को संचालित किया जाता है। सांस्कृतिक गौरव कहे जाने वाले मेलबर्न में आईएफएफएम के 10वें संस्करण का धूमधाम के साथ आयोजन करने जा रही है। इस बार समारोह का मुख्य थीम "साहस" होगा। जैसे तो यह फिल्म महोत्सव 8 अगस्त से लेकर 17 अगस्त तक चलेगा। लेकिन शाहरुख आधिकारिक रूप से 8 अगस्त को अन्य अतिथियों और फेस्टिवल निदेशक मीतू भीमिक लागे के साथ आयोजन का उद्घाटन करेंगे।

शाहरुख इस निमंत्रण को पाकर सम्मानित महसूस कर रहे हैं। उन्होंने निमंत्रण को स्वीकार करते हुए कहा- 'मैं अपने मुख्य अतिथि के रूप में अपना खौहार की शुरुआत करने के लिए विक्टोरियन सरकार और मेलबर्न के भारतीय फिल्म महोत्सव से आमंत्रण स्वीकार करने के लिए सम्मानित और प्रसन्न हूँ।' मेरे पास मेलबर्न में चक दे इंडिया की शूटिंग की बहुत अच्छी यादें हैं और इस बार फिर से भारतीय सिनेमा का जन्म मनाने के लिए तैयार हूँ।

विक्टोरियन प्रधानमंत्री डैनियल एंड्रियुज ने कहा कि वह उत्सव के हिस्से के तौर पर भारतीय अभिनेता का उत्सुकता से इंतजार कर रहे हैं। प्रधानमंत्री भी इस फेस्टिवल का उद्घाटन करेंगे।

मुंबई। बॉलीवुड के किंग खान शाहरुख खान मेलबर्न फिल्म फेस्टिवल के स्पेशल गेस्ट होंगे। मेलबर्न में होने वाला भारतीय फिल्म फेस्टिवल 2019 जल्द ही शुरू होने जा रहा है। फेस्टिवल की शुरुआत आठ अगस्त से हो रही है और यह 17 अगस्त तक चलेगा। शाहरुख खान इस बार मेलबर्न में होने वाले इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल के मुख्य अतिथि होंगे। शाहरुख ही इस फेस्टिवल को ऑफिशली शुरू करेंगे। शाहरुख ने इससे पहले फिल्म 'चक दे इंडिया' की शूटिंग भी मेलबर्न में की थी। इस साल इस उत्सव की थीम 'साहस' निर्धारित की गई है।

शाहरुख खान ने कहा, "मैं मुख्य अतिथि के रूप में इस फेस्टिवल की शुरुआत के लिए विक्टोरियन सरकार और मेलबर्न के इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल से आमंत्रण पाकर काफी खुश और सम्मानित महसूस कर रहा हूँ। हमारी इतनी बड़ी और विविधता वाली इंडस्ट्री का जश्न जोश और उत्साह के साथ मनाए जाने योग्य है और यही तो फेस्टिवल का मतलब है।

मैं इस साल इस फेस्टिवल के थीम 'साहस' को लेकर खासतौर पर खुश हूँ। साहस एक ऐसी भावना है, जो उन राइटर्स के साथ रिफ्लेक्ट होती है, जो वास्तव में समाज और दुनिया को बदलने की क्षमता रखते हैं। मेलबर्न में 'चक दे इंडिया' की शूटिंग की बहुत अच्छी यादें अब तक मेरे दिल में बसी हैं और इस बार फिर से यहां भारतीय सिनेमा का जश्न मनाने के लिए मैं बहुत उत्सुक हूँ।" एजेंसी

भारतीय फिल्मों के वार्षिक उत्सव के मुख्य अतिथि के रूप में भारतीय अभिनेता और सुपरस्टार शाहरुख खान अपनी उपस्थिति से फेस्टिवल का मान बढ़ाएंगे।

पिछले 10 वर्षों में ये फेस्टिवल सीढ़ी दर सीढ़ी बढ़ते हुए पुर्णतः विकसित हो कर एक जमीनी स्तर के फेस्टिवल से अब एक सरकार द्वारा समर्थित और कई ग्लोबल प्रशंसा हासिल करने वाला दक्षिणी गोलार्ध का सबसे बड़ा भारतीय फिल्म महोत्सव बन चुका है। इस वर्ष इस उत्सव की सेंट्रल थीम 'साहस' निर्धारित की गई है, ऐसी खासियत जो भारतीय फिल्म व्यवसाय की समावेशिता और विविधता में कूट कर बसी है।

किंग खान जिन्हें वैश्विक स्तर पर काफी माना जाता है, वे अन्य अतिथियों के साथ 8 अगस्त, 2019 को आधिकारिक रूप से इस त्योहार की शुरुआत करेंगे और 'प्रीमियर विक्टोरिया' और इस प्रतिष्ठित त्योहार के निदेशक मीतू भौमिक लांग भी उनके साथ होंगे।

शाहरुख खान ने कहा, "मैं मुख्य अतिथि के रूप में इस त्योहार की शुरुआत के लिए विक्टोरियन सरकार और मेलबर्न के भारतीय फिल्म महोत्सव से आमंत्रण पाकर काफी खुश और सम्मानित महसूस कर रहा हूँ। हमारी इतनी बड़ी और विविधता वाली इंडस्ट्री का जश्न खूब जोश और उत्साह के साथ मनाए जाने योग्य है, और यही तो फेस्टिवल का मतलब है। मैं इस साल इस उत्सव के विषय 'साहस' को लेकर विशेष रूप से खुश हूँ. साहस एक ऐसी भावना है जो उन कहानीकारों के साथ प्रतिध्वनित होती है जो वास्तव में समाज और दुनिया को बदलने की क्षमता रखते हैं। मेलबर्न में चक दे इंडिया की शूटिंग की बहुत अच्छी यादें अब तक मेरे दिल में बसी हैं और इस बार फिर से यहां भारतीय सिनेमा का जश्न मनाने के लिए मैं बहुत उत्सुक हूँ।"

MUMBAI: Filmmaker Zoya Akhtar is set to take her movie 'Gully Boy', starring Ranveer Singh and Alia Bhatt, to the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne 2019.

Now in its 10th year, the festival will host the director and will be showcasing her film. The director will also be having an elaborate conversation on Indian cinema with the audience on August 10.

"It's always great to see Indian cinema travelling and transcending across borders. As a filmmaker, it's a very rewarding experience and more than that, it's extremely thrilling to see celebration of Indian films," Zoya said in a statement.

"I'm ecstatic to be invited and to be a part of IFFM 2019 in Melbourne which is a melting pot of cultures. There's a huge Indian community in Australia and I'm looking forward to take 'Gully Boy' to Australia for a special screening and extending a discussion on cinema with Australian audience," she added.

The fest will take place from August 8 to August 17.

Zoya Akhtar to screen 'Gully Boy' at Indian Film Festival of Melbourne

Press Trust of India | Mumbai June 27, 2019 Last Updated at 13:45 IST

Filmmaker Zoya Akhtar will be presenting "Gully Boy" at the 2019 Indian Film Festival of Melbourne.

The film, starring Ranveer Singh and Alia Bhatt in the lead, released in February this year to overwhelming reviews from the critics.

The film's story follows an up-and-coming rapper who sets out to achieve his dream by rhyming about his life on the Mumbai streets.

The 10th edition of the festival will be held from August 8 to 17 in Victoria, Melbourne.

During the festival, Zoya will also participate in a discussion on Indian cinema with the Australian audiences on August 10.

"It's always great to see Indian cinema travelling and transcending across borders. As a filmmaker it's a very rewarding experience and more than that, it's extremely thrilling to see celebration of Indian films," the filmmaker said in a statement.

"I'm ecstatic to be invited and to be a part of IFFM 2019 which is a melting pot of cultures. There's a huge Indian community in Australia and I'm looking forward to taking Gully Boy for a special screening and a discussion on cinema with Australian audiences", she said in the statement.

A symphony of creativity, sensitivity, and individuality is one way of describing the acclaimed filmmaker Zoya Akhtar's style in her signature films. The NYU alumni started her career assisting directors like Mira Nair, Tony Gerber, and Dev Benegal before becoming a writer-director in her own right.

Whether Zindagi Na Milegi Dobara (2011), Luck by Chance (2009) or her latest blockbuster film Gully Boy (2019) – Ms Akhtar resonates with her audience by capturing them in interesting scripts, characters, and visuals.

Each of her works embeds a storyline highlighting a spectrum of issues facing the present-day millennial.

Her web series for Amazon Prime – 'Made in Heaven', and an episode for Netflix original 'Lust Stories' – explores people from the various economical background, all nestled in a similar situation of life. Her scripts define living in reality, whilst aspiring for more. Constantly keeping you engaged and interested, Ms. Akhtar leaves you wanting more.

Shah Rukh Khan will be in Melbourne for the IFFM – but no flag hoisting??

The actor is the chief guest at this year's International Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM), to be held 8-17 August.

Everybody's favourite Bollywood personality Shah Rukh Khan will soon be heading our way.

He is the chief guest at this year's International Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM), to be held 8-17 August.

Not much is known yet about other guests, but you can make a safe bet regular culprits Simi Grewal and Malaika Arora (no longer Khan) will be around. How about Karan Johar, SRK's bestie?

Looks like some changes have had to be made to the usual program this time round.

It all kicks off with the IFFM Awards this year – the gala party that has traditionally closed the official part of the festival. Shah Rukh will be attending of course, on 8 August, and then launching the festival itself the following day.

What, you're not staying around for flag hoisting at Fed Square, Shah Rukh??

As we await further news – of the films to be screened, celebrity guests, masterclasses and special interviews – we know as of now that the other festival mainstay, the Bollywood dance contest, is back again, to be held on 10 Aug.

Mitu Bhowmick Lange, the director of the festival has also announced that the theme this year is Courage. Well chosen, we say, in times when freedom of expression is a hot topic not only in India but the world at large.

Shah Rukh himself said, "I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is Courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change society and the world."

(How about a retrospective of Girish Karnad? He certainly fits the theme, and it will be a wonderful tribute.)

Shah Rukh also added, "I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema."

The festival is marking its tenth year this year.

MELBOURNE. Superstar Shah Rukh Khan will be the chief guest at this year's Indian Film Festival of Melbourne, the festival organisers announced Thursday. Helmed by the Victorian government, Australia, the IFFM is back for its 10th edition in the cultural city and will celebrate "courage" as its central theme.

Khan said he is honoured and delighted to accept the invitation.

"An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies.

"I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for 'Chak, De! India' in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema," the actor said in a statement.

Khan will open the IFFM on August 8 along with the other festival guests and in the company of Victorian Premier Daniel Andrews and festival director Mitu Showrick Lange.

Andrews said he is looking forward to having the Indian actor as part of the festival.

"This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan here, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet," he said.

"The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria. Perhaps we'll even lure Shah Rukh back to our shores again," Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley added.

Lange said the team is excited to host Khan in the city.

"He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions and millions follow and look up to. We are looking forward to hosting Mr Khan in Melbourne," she said.

The festival will run through August 17.

Bollywood actress Rani Mukherjee's film "Hitohki" is scheduled to be screened at the 49th Giffoni Film Festival in Italy from July 19 and the inspirational film has been vigorously striving to deliver a progressive message against conservatism.

Sonam Kapoor has a crazy love for Pani-Puri, even after being a super hit..*

In the film, Rani plays a school teacher who changes the lives of students coming from economically backward classes, while she herself suffers from Tourette syndrome, where some of the person's physical gestures are different from normal ones. Manish Sharma, creator of "Hitohki", said in a recent statement that "Hitohhike is a classic underdog story, which engages with audiences around the world and has a universal story that touches the heart as well as being inspiring."

SRK to be chief guest at 10th IFFM of Melbourne

Press Trust of India, Melbourne, JUN 13 2019, 11:58AM IST | UPDATED: JUN 13 2019, 12:17PM IST

Superstar Shah Rukh Khan will be the chief guest at this year's Indian Film Festival of Melbourne, the festival organisers announced on Thursday.

Helmed by the Victorian government, Australia, the IFFM is back for its 10th edition in the cultural city and will celebrate "courage" as its central theme.

Khan said he is honoured and delighted to accept the invitation.

"An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies."

"I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for 'Chak De! India' in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema," the actor said in a statement.

Vijay Krishna Acharya, the famed director, writer and lyricist of several hits like the Dhoom series, Pyaar Ke Side Effects, Guru and Bluffmaster, will now be spearheading the jury of the short film competition section of the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne 2019. Now in its 10th year, the festival recently was abuzz across when it announced its annual chief guest to be Shah Rukh Khan. Each year, the festival attracts several talented film actors and makers to the land down under to participate in the biggest celebration of Indian films in Australia.

Speaking about this, director Vijay Krishna Acharya said, "I'm truly looking forward to seeing the immense talent presented at this elaborate celebration and showcase of Indian cinema. It makes me very happy that platforms such as these are helping diversify the display and conversation around Indian cinema, not just for the Indian demographic in those countries, but are promoting Indian culture and films to a larger audience. I am

Adding to his thoughts, director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange said, "We are extremely pleased to have Vjay on board as the jury of the Short Film Competition. Each year the festival has churned out some incredible gems in this section where new and budding directors submit us their work. It's amazing to see the storytelling efforts people are taking today to tell such intricate stories in such a short duration. This year as a gratification we will be presenting the winner with a high-end Black Magic camera and a trip to India".

Vijay Krishna Acharya is a renowned Indian Film writer and director and will be judging the short film competition, one of the most sought after sections of the festival. Previously actor Ali Fozal was the jury of the competition and this year it will be Vijay judging the several short films which are submitted from India and Australia. This year's festival theme is courage and the films will be submitted keeping this central core theme in mind. The winners will be announced at the annual gala awards night and they will be felicitated and award by Vijay himself. The winners also are entitled to a trip to India and will also be given a Black Magic camera.

Rani Mukerji starrer Hichki heads to Italy – read details

June 29, 2019

Rani Mukerji starrer Hichki that released last year received rave responses. The film, based on Brad Cohen's autobiography Front of the Class: How Tourette Syndrome Made Me the Teacher I Never Had, impressed the audience and went on to earn pretty big at the box office. It was screened and went on to win top awards at several international film festivals such as Shanghai International Film festival (2018) and Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (2018). Hichki also had a release in Russia, Kazakhstan, Taiwan, Hong Kong and China.

And now, the movie is all set to be screened at the 49th edition of the Giffoni Film Festival in Italy. Expressing his happiness, producer Maneesh Sharma said to daily, "For it to be selected for screening at children's film festival shows its relevance to this age-group as well. Hichki is that rare film that has been doing India proud globally and our intent is to showcase this film to as many people across the world."

He added, "Hichki is a classic underdog story that has resonated with audiences all over the world. It has a universal story that's both inspiring and heart-warming and we at YRF are humbled with the love and appreciation that our gem of a film has been receiving. Hichki is a story of human triumph against stereotypes, against insurmountable odds that are posed by our society and it has truly appealed across cultures and borders and age-groups."

Giffoni International Children Film Festival in Italy will commence on July 19 and will continue till July 27. It is one of the most popular and prestigious children's film festivals in the world.

MEDIA HIGHLIGHTS

या वर्षी कॉलॅटॉईन डे दिनी प्रदर्शित झालेला रणवीर सिंग व आलिया भट्ट यांचा चित्रपट गली बॉय देशातील या वर्षातील सर्वात पहिला हिट चित्रपट सिद्ध झाला होता. आता हा चित्रपट विदेशातही झेंडा रोवणार आहे. चित्रपट निर्माती झोया अख्तर आपला चित्रपट गली बॉयला इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिव्हल ऑफ मेलबर्न २०१९ मध्ये एकून जाण्याच्या तयारीला जुंपली आहे.

या चित्रपटामध्ये रणवीर सिंग व आलिया भट्ट यांनी मुख्य भूमिका साकारल्या होत्या. या फेस्टीव्हलचे हे दहावे वर्ष आहे. यासंदर्भात झोया अख्तरने म्हटले आहे, 'भारतीय सिनेमा सीमापार नेताना पाहणे खूपच शानदार अनुभव वाटतो. एक चित्रपट निर्माता म्हणून हा खूपच चांगला अनुभव आहे व यापेक्षाही भारतीय चित्रपटांचा उत्सव पाहणे रोमांचक आहे.

मेलबर्नमध्ये आयएफएफएम २०१९ मध्ये आमंत्रित करण्यात आल्याने मी खूप खुश आहे, जेथे सर्व संस्कृतींचा मिलाप पहायला मिळतो. ऑस्ट्रेलियामध्ये भारतीय समुदाय खूप मोठ्या प्रमाणावर आहे व मी ऑस्ट्रेलियामध्ये गली बॉयचे स्पेशल स्क्रीनिंग व या सिनेमावर ऑस्ट्रेलियन प्रेक्षकांबरोबर चर्चा करण्यासाठी उत्साहित आहे.

फिल्म फेस्टिवलमध्ये झळकणार 'गली बॉय'

बॉलिवूडमध्ये सध्या यशाच्या शिखरावर असलेले दोन कलाकार म्हणजे रणवीर सिंग आणि आलिया भट्ट. १४ फेब्रुवारी रोजी त्यांचा 'गली बॉय' हा चित्रपट प्रेक्षकांच्या भेटीला आला. या चित्रपटाचं दिग्दर्शन जोया अख्तर यांनी केले असून या चित्रपटाला प्रेक्षकांनी उत्स्फूर्त प्रतिसाद दिला. विशेष म्हणजे आता हा चित्रपट 'इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल ऑफ मेलबर्न २०१९'मध्ये दाखविला जाणार आहे. या महोत्सवाचे आयोजन ८ ते १७ ऑगस्ट रोजी मेलबर्नमधील व्हिक्टोरिया येथे करण्यात आले असून या महोत्सवाचे हे १०वे वर्ष आहे. या निमित्ताने १० ऑगस्ट रोजी जोया ऑस्ट्रेलियन प्रेक्षकांशी संवाद साधण्यासाठी एका चर्चासत्रामध्ये सहभागी होणार आहे. भारतीय चित्रपट जेव्हा सीमा पार करून परदेशामध्ये प्रदर्शित होतात. तेव्हा तो अत्यंत अभिमानास्पद क्षण असतो. एका चित्रपटाची दिग्दर्शिका, निर्माती म्हणून हा माझ्यासाठी प्रचंड आनंदाचा क्षण असून भारतीय चित्रपटांना अन्य देशात प्रदर्शित होणे ही अभिमानाची बाब आहे, असे म्हणत जोयाने तिचे मत व्यक्त केले. पुढे ती म्हणते, मेलबर्नमध्ये आयएफएफएम २०१९ मध्ये आमंत्रित केल्यामुळे मी प्रचंड आनंदी आहे. येथे अनेक संस्कृतींचा मेळ होतो. ऑस्ट्रेलियामध्ये भारतीय नागरिकांची संख्या मोठ्या प्रमाणावर आहे आणि त्यामुळेच मी ऑस्ट्रेलियामध्ये 'गली बॉय'च्या स्पेशल स्क्रीनिंगच्या निमित्ताने ऑस्ट्रेलियन प्रेक्षकांशी चर्चा करण्यास उत्सुक आहे. जोया अख्तर दिग्दर्शित 'गली बॉय' या चित्रपटात झोपडपट्टीत लहानाचा मोठा झालेला आणि आपल्या स्वप्नांसाठी धडपडणाऱ्या २६ वर्षीय डिव्हाइन या प्रसिद्ध रॅपरची कथा दाखविण्यात आली आहे.

Celebrating its tenth anniversary this year, the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM) is taking place from 8-17 August. Over the last decade the Festival has grown from a grassroots event to the largest Indian Film Festival in the Southern hemisphere, winning a number of awards and working closely with the Victorian government, who have strongly supported its growth. The 2019 Festival theme is 'courage', a central tenet that reflects the growing inclusivity and diversity of the Indian film industry.

The very special guest of this year's annual celebration of Indian films is Indian actor and superstar Shah Rukh Khan. "King Khan", as he's admirably referred to globally, will be attending the IFFM Awards on 8 August and officially opening the Festival on 9 August along with other special Festival guests, and Festival Director Mitu Bhowmick Lange.

Shah Rukh Khan has appeared in more than 80 Bollywood films, and earned numerous accolades, including 14 Filmfare Awards (more than any other actor). For his contributions to film, the Government of India honoured him with the Padma Shri, and the Government of France awarded him both the Ordre des Arts et des Lettres and the Légion d'honneur. Khan has a significant following in Asia and the Indian diaspora worldwide. In terms of audience size and income, he has been described as one of the most successful film stars in the world.

Speaking on being appointed as the chief guest for the festival, Shah Rukh Khan, said, "I'm honoured and delighted to accept the invitation from the Victorian government and the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne to open their festival as their chief guest. An industry of our magnitude and diversity deserves to be celebrated with great passion and fervour, which is what the festival embodies. I'm particularly pleased with the theme of the festival this year which is courage, an emotion that resonates with storytellers who really have the might to change the society and the world. I have had great memories of shooting for Chak De India in Melbourne and look forward to being back again, this time to celebrate Indian cinema".

Announcing the news, the Victorian Premier, the Honourable Daniel Andrews said: "The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is a much-loved event that celebrates the strong relationship between Victoria and India and our own vibrant Indian community. This event has grown significantly over the past decade and with the extraordinary Shah Rukh Khan here, this year's festival is shaping up to be the biggest and most exciting yet."

Minister for Creative Industries Martin Foley said: "A celebration of film, community and culture, the Indian Film Festival puts Melbourne in the spotlight and attracts more than 35,000 people each year. The Bollywood and Indian film industry is the biggest in the world and in addition to supporting this festival, we've announced a new Bollywood and Indian Cinema Attraction Fund to bring more film productions from India and the subcontinent to Victoria. Perhaps we'll even lure Shah Rukh back to our shores again!"

Festival Director, Mitu Bhowmick Lange said, "We are so elated with the news of Mr. Khan joining us to be our chief guest. He's truly an icon of Indian cinema internationally, a person millions follow and look up to. The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne has always strived to bring the best Indian cinema here in Melbourne and bridge a gap between the fans and the actors whom people love and admire. We are looking forward to hosting Mr. Khan in Melbourne."

The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne is the southern hemisphere's greatest annual celebration of Indian cinema. Established in 2010, and re-branded as IFFM in 2012 as an initiative of the Victorian Government, it is recognised as an important feature of the State's cultural calendar. In 2016, the festival was honoured with the much-respected Melbourne Award for contribution in Multiculturalism. IFFM is proudly supported by the Victorian Government via Film Victoria – principal partner of the festival.

The 2019 Indian Film Festival of Melbourne takes place from 8 August – 17 August.

Melbourne calling for Bengali films Ahaa Re and Cactus

By - TNN | Zinia Sen | Created: Jun 21, 2019, 18:03 IST | f t p

Indian Film Festival of Melbourne 2019 will take place in August and this will mark the 10th anniversary of the film festival. The two Bengali films to have made it to the festival this year are Ahaa Re by Ranjan Ghosh and Cactus by Aneek Chaudhuri. Ahaa Re has already seen a commercial release and will also be screened in Bengaluru Bengali Film Festival this month. The film explores the bonding between two people over food and stars Rituparna Sengupta, Arifin Suvo and Amrita Chattopadhyay. On the other hand, Cactus is a silent feature film by independent filmmaker Aneek Chaudhuri that premiered in Vienna, was nominated for Rome Independent Film Awards and was presented in the market section of Festival de Cannes. Cactus comments on the life of Jesus Christ and presents Him as a female. The film has already got movie lovers talking for its content.

On this selection, Aneek says, "IFFM has a significant role in my career as I had started my filmmaking from the very festival in 2011. Even last year, my film, White, got great reception at IFFM. This is a platform where independent features can be viewed and are kept in the same category as that of mainstream film. This is a great opportunity for us."

From what is being reported so far, Shah Rukh Khan will be the chief guest at Indian Film Festival of Melbourne 2019 and will span from August 8-17. Apart from these two films, there will be several other Indian films.

Thugs Of Hindostan director Vijay Krishna Acharya to spearhead the jury of short film competition of IFFM 2019

By Bollywood Hungama News Network, Created: Jul 1, 2019 - 12:19 pm IST

Vijay Krishna Acharya, the famed director, writer and lyricist of several hits like the Dhoom series, Pyaar Ke Side Effects, Guru and Bluffmaster, will now be spearheading the jury of the short film competition section of the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne 2019. Now in its 10th year, the festival recently was abuzz across when it announced its annual chief guest to be Shah Rukh Khan. Each year, the festival attracts several talented film actors and makers to the land down under to participate in the biggest celebration of Indian films in Australia.

Speaking about this, director Vijay Krishna Acharya said, "I'm truly looking forward to seeing the immense talent presented at this elaborate celebration and showcase of Indian cinema. It makes me very happy that platforms such as these are helping diversify the display and conversation around Indian cinema, not just for the Indian demographic in those countries, but are promoting Indian culture and films to a larger audience. I am excited to see some wonderful short films that celebrate the theme of this year's festival – Courage. We are certain to see some incredibly talented young filmmakers and their arresting vision".

Adding to his thoughts, director of the festival, Mitu Bhowmick Lange said, "We are extremely pleased to have Vijay on board as the jury of the Short Film Competition. Each year the festival has churned out some incredible gems in this section where new and budding directors submit us their work. It's amazing to see the storytelling efforts people are taking today to tell such intricate stories in such a short duration. This year as a gratification we will be presenting the winner with a high-end Black Magic camera and a trip to India".

Vijay Krishna Acharya is a renowned Indian Film writer and director and will be judging the short film competition, one of the most sought after sections of the festival. Previously actor Ali Fazal was the jury of the competition and this year it will be Vijay judging the several short films which are submitted from India and Australia. This year's festival theme is courage and the films will be submitted keeping this central core theme in mind. The winners will be announced at the annual gala awards night and they will be felicitated and award by Vijay himself. The winners also are entitled to a trip to India and will also be given a Black Magic camera.

Mission Mangal* heads to IFFM

As India readies itself for Chandrayan 2, this Independence Day the country will relive the incredibly unbelievable story of how a team of Indian scientists cracked the country's first ever interplanetary mission in the Vidya Balan and Akshay Kumar-starrer Mission Mangal. Given the theme of courage, the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne will host the official Australian premiere of the film on Independence Day at HOYTS Chadstone in Melbourne, which will incidentally be the first festival premiere for the film.

The sci-fi is a celebration of indomitable human spirit, woman power and patriotic fervour, all rolled in one. Akshay Kumar, himself, has gone on record to call it the most moving film of his career. The stellar cast also includes Sonakshi Sinha, Nithya Menon, Taapsee Pannu and Sharman Joshi.

'Akshay is the star in Mission Mangal'

TAAPSEE Pannu has a message for the critics of the first poster of Mission Mangal – which releases on August 15 – which courted controversy for giving Akshay Kumar a bigger display than his women colleagues: star value is a brutal truth that must be accepted.

Pannu, who plays Kritika Aggarwal, one of the female scientists spearheading India's mission to send a spacecraft to orbit Mars in the film, said instead of questioning the poster, people need to be the change they want to see.

"The problem is not from this end [the film]. The people who are not happy about it, they need to do something because there's a reason behind it... The star value is such... That's a brutal truth we need to accept and then think there is no point questioning it. Be the reason to change this truth," said Pannu at the just-ended 10th Jagran Film Festival in Mumbai.

The 31-year-old actor said the film would have managed a good run at the box office even if the five female cast members – Vidya Balan, Sonakshi Sinha, Kirti Kulhari, Nithya Menon and her – were not a part of the movie. "There would have been some impact on the collections but not that much as the content of the movie would have remained as strong [and] there's already a superstar in the film," she said referring to Kumar. "We five being a part of it just makes it go higher."

Incidentally Mission Mangal will also have a festival premiere on Independence Day at HOYTS Chadstone in Melbourne during the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. —PTI

Amaal Malik to perform with the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra

Sneha Mahadewan

Musician and singer Amaal Malik known for composing fast tagging tracks such as Bohraj (Dabba Hai) (2011), Mano Hoon (Hera Phera) (2011) and Soch Ne Soke (Airlift) (2016), vic has been roped in to be the official performer at the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM) Awards night scheduled to take place on August 8. Amaal will be performing to a medley of his most popular compositions and renditions at the iconic Palais Theatre.

A source close to the singer reveals, "Amaal will be joined for his performance with one of the world's biggest and most reputed orchestras based in Melbourne, the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra — the oldest orchestra in Australia, they've previously collaborated with the likes of Elton John, Hans Zimmer and AR Rahman. It will be a gala evening filled with music that truly celebrates cinema from India."

Talking about this opportunity, an ecstatic Amaal, says, "It's nothing about an honour for me to be collaborating with them. It's a big moment and I want to deliver my very best for the evening. I have been short listing songs for the medley. There will be a few expected and some very unexpected choices from my end. I will spend a good few days to prepare for those before meeting the maestro Melbourne."

Amaal Mallik to perform with the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra

Sneha Mahadevan

Musician and singer Amaal Mallik known for composing foot tapping tracks such as Sooraj Dooba Hai (Roy; 2015), Main Hoon Hero Tera (Hero; 2015) and Soch Na Sake (Airlift; 2016), etc has been roped in to be the official performer at the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM) Awards night scheduled to take place on August 8. Amaal will be performing to a medley of his most popular compositions and renditions at the iconic Palais theatre.

A source close to the singer reveals, "Amaal will be joined for his performance with one for the world's biggest and most reputed orchestras based in Melbourne, the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra — the oldest orchestra in Australia, they've previously collaborated with the likes of Elton John, Hans Zimmer and AR Rahman. It will be a gala

Talking about this opportunity, an ecstatic Amaal, says, "It's nothing short of an honour for me to be collaborating with them. It's a big moment and I want to deliver my very best for the evening. I have been short listing songs for the medley. There will be a few expected and some very unexpected choices from my end. I will spend a good few days to prepare for them before meeting the team in Melbourne."

Amaal Mallik

Indian Film Festival Melbourne

OPENING NIGHT FRIDAY AUGUST 9

2019 marks 10 years of the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. Celebrating the best of Indian cinema, IFFM has grown over the last decade to incorporate and promote social awareness through its unique individual themes. This years theme is Courage. Book now to attend a festival masterclasses, celebration of India's independence day, the Telstra Bollywood dance competition, short film competition, Awards night and closing night ceremonies.

MEDIA HIGHLIGHTS

Nawazuddin Siddiqui's short film Bebaak is yet to be screened in India, but it has already done the rounds of international film festivals. The film throws light on day-to-day issues faced by Indian Muslim girls who are aspirational and work hard to grow above their current circumstances. The short will now be screened at the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. Says a source, "The word Bebaak means fearless, which truly matches up to the theme of soon to begin IFFM, from August 8 this year. The festival will be celebrating its 10th year with the central theme of 'courage'. The Nawazuddin-starrer has glimpses of that courage and explores the misogyny faced by a woman."

The film written and directed by Shazia Iqbal and presented by Anurag Kashyap had faced trouble showcasing it at a film festival in India last year. Talking about its screening at Melbourne, Shazia says, "IFFM is one of the best known Indian Film Festivals abroad and I am excited about Bebaak's inclusion in the Documentary and Shorts program. For the last three months, Bebaak's journey at the festivals has been satisfying as the film has got a phenomenal response, screening to packed, intrigued audiences full of questions about the issues of feminism, role of women in Religion and society as whole. I am glad the film has got opportunity to screen at so many festivals, managed to move people and even win a few awards. I am looking forward to presenting the film for IFFM audience."

Bebaak: Nawazuddin Siddiqui's film on Muslim Indian girls to be screened at IIFM

FP Staff Aug 03, 2019 13:35:48 IST

Nawazuddin Siddiqui and Sarah Hashmi-starrer Bebaak will be screened at the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne, reports DNA. Though the film is yet to release in India, the feature seems to be garnering a lot of international attention.

Bebaak deals with the narrative of Indian Muslim girls who struggle to make something out of their lives, going above and beyond their circumstances. The publication states the word Bebaak translates to fearless. This, in fact, is in tandem with the theme of the festival this year, which begins from 8 August.

Celebrating its 10th anniversary, IIFM's theme is courage in 2019. Bebaak deals with precisely that where the women protagonists portray grit to break out of the misogyny.

Check out Anurag Kashyap's post on Bebaak

The feature has been penned and helmed by Shazia Iqbal, and presented by Anurag Kashyap.

Talking about the film's screening at IIFM, the publication quotes Shazia as saying, "IFFM is one of the best known Indian film festivals abroad and I am excited about Bebaak's inclusion in the Documentary and Shorts program. For the last three months, Bebaak's journey at the festivals has been satisfying as the film has got a phenomenal response, screening to packed, intrigued audiences full of questions about the issues of feminism, role of women in Religion and society as whole. Arjun Kapoor to join Melbourne film fest masterclass

Actor Arjun Kapoor will join the upcoming Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM) to discuss "The Future of Cinema".

"The masterclass is about the future of cinema and I'm looking forward to exchanging notes and thoughts with the other members on the panel and, importantly, with the audiences," Arjun said.

Arjun's masterclass will see him discuss the change in the storytelling template and how members of the film fraternity are finding their feet through the shifting tides. The actor will also talk about the shift in cinema. The hour-long panel discussion will be held at Arts Centre Melbourne on August 11.

Filmmaker Onir is the other prominent member of the panel.

"This diverse panel of speakers, each with an incredible body of work, is what Indian cinema is about today. This is my first time at the festival and I'm looking forward to meeting people from Australia who watch Indian cinema. Australia has a vibrant film and TV culture. Understanding the perspectives of people from different places is always fun. I am happy to get this chance to speak on Indian cinema at the Indian Film Festival in Melbourne and to experience the city's delights," said the actor.

The fest is scheduled to be held from August 8 to 17.

Arjun Kapoor to turn master at Indian Film Festival of Melbourne

Updated: Jul 29, 2019, 07:19 IST | Mohar Baku

Arjun Kapoor to conduct a masterclass on the future of cinema at the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne next month

Arjun Kapoor will spearhead the discussion on 'The Future of Cinema' at IFFM

As an actor with a flourishing career and the son of a successful producer, Arjun Kapoor has an innate understanding of the creative and commercial aspects of movies. That coupled with the fact that he is part of the current crop of actors navigating stardom in times of digital invasion makes him the perfect voice to analyse the growth of India cinema. It's only fitting then that Kapoor has been invited to the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne where he will spearhead the discussion on 'The Future Of Cinema'.

At a time when OTT platforms are churning out stories that can give films a run for their money, he will discuss their impact on the domestic box office, the change of template in storytelling, and whether he has contemplated jumping on the digital bandwagon. Joining him in the hour-long conversation on August 10 will be directors Sujoy Ghosh and Onir, Ajit Andhare, COO, Viacom Motion Pictures, and Gaurav Verma, business head, Red Chillies Entertainment.

Arjun Kapoor To Discuss 'The Future Of Cinema' At The Indian Film Festival Of Melbourne 2019

Arjun Kapoor, who was last seen in India's Most Wanted, will soon head to Australia to attend the Indian Film Festival Of Melbourne 2019.

Arjun will be joining a panel discussion on 'The Future of Cinema' at the IFFM 2019. Being a young actor navigating stardom in times of digital invasion via OTT platforms and the constant glare of social media, in his masterclass Kapoor will discuss the change of template in storytelling and how filmmakers, producers, actors and directors as well as the crew are finding their feet through these shifting tiles. To be moderated by Rajeev Masand, Kapoor will discuss the importance of cinema and its shape shifting forms at the event.

Talking about his masterclass at IFFM, an ecstatic Arjun said, "The master class is about the future of cinema and I'm looking forward to exchanging notes and thoughts with the other members on the panel and with the audiences most importantly. This diverse panel of speakers, each with a incredible body of work is what Indian cinema is about today. This is my first time at the festival and I'm looking forward to meeting people from Australia that watch Indian cinema. Australia has a vibrant film and TV culture. Understanding the perspectives of people from different places is always fun. I am very happy to get this chance to speak on Indian cinema at the prestigious Indian Film Festival in Melbourne and to experience the city's delights."

Joining him on the dais will be filmmaker Onir, Ajit Andhare of Viacom18 Motion Pictures and Gaurav Verma – Business Head of Red Chillies Entertainment. The hour-long event will be held at Arts Centre, Melbourne on August 11.

हालांकि वो अपनी स्पष्टवादिता और समझदारी के लिए ज़्यादा जाने जाते हैं, इंडियन फिल्म फेस्टिवल ऑफ मेलबर्न में अर्जुन कपूर एक अप्रत्याशित अतिथि के रूप में शामिल होने वाले हैं। जबकि एक दशक पहले तक यह फिल्म महोत्सव स्वतंत्र सिनेमा तक ही सीमित था, घटनाओं के एक ताज़ा मोड़ के क्रम में कपूर अब “द फ्यूचर ऑफ़ सिनेमा” के बारे में पैनल चर्चा में शामिल होने के लिए अपनी उपस्थिति से फेस्टिवल का मान बढ़ाएंगे। ओटीटी प्लेटफार्मों के माध्यम से डिजिटल दुनिया के दौर में और सोशल मीडिया पर उनके स्टारडम को देखते हुए, युवा अभिनेता कपूर इस मास्टरक्लास में स्टोरी टेलिंग में टेम्पलेट के बदलाव और फिल्म मेकर- निर्माता, अभिनेता और निर्देशक के साथ-साथ क्रू मेंबर भी इस बदलते दौर के साथ कैसे तालमेल बिठा रहे हैं, इस बारे में चर्चा करेंगे। यह बातचीत राजीव मसंद द्वारा संचालित की जाएगी, जिसमें कपूर सिनेमा के महत्व, उसके बदलते स्वरूप और कैसे वे सिनेमा के इस परिवर्तन को अपना रहे हैं, इस बारे में अपने विचार बताएंगे। एक घंटे तक चलने वाला यह कार्यक्रम 11 अगस्त को आर्ट्स सेंटर मेलबर्न में होगा।

बेहद खुश हुए अर्जुन कहते हैं, “यह मास्टर क्लास सिनेमा के भविष्य के बारे में है और मैं पैनल पर अन्य सदस्यों के साथ और खासकर दर्शकों के साथ विचारों का आदान-प्रदान करने को लेकर बहुत उत्सुक हूँ। इस फेस्टिवल में जाने का यह मेरा पहला मौका है। ऑस्ट्रेलिया में मैं ऐसे लोगों से मिलना चाह रहा हूँ जो भारतीय सिनेमा देखते हैं। अलग अलग जगहों के लोगों के दृष्टिकोण को समझना हमेशा मज़ेदार होता है। मेलबर्न के प्रतिष्ठित भारतीय फिल्म समारोह में भारतीय सिनेमा पर बोलने और उस शहर में जाने का यह मौका मिलने पर मैं बहुत खुश हूँ।”

Yes, Arjun Kapoor is headed to Australia to attend the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne, where the actor will be part of a panel discussion on "The Future of Cinema".

This is my first time at the festival and I'm looking forward to meeting people from Australia that watch Indian cinema. Australia has a vibrant film and TV culture. Understanding the perspectives of people from different places is always fun. I am very happy to get this chance to speak on Indian cinema at the prestigious Indian Film Festival in Melbourne and to experience the city's delights.

Ahead of all of this, however, Arjun took to Instagram to share photos of a new tattoo he's got on his arm, that reads 'Per Ardua Ad Astra' that means 'through struggle to the stars' in Latin. Arjun got the tattoo done at Savio Dsilva's Fine Art Studio in Mumbai.

The hour-long panel discussion will take place on August 11, at Arts Centre Melbourne.

Arjun, who is very excited to be attending the event for the first time, will be joined by Ajit Andhare of Viacom18 Motion Pictures, Gaurav Verma – Business Head of Red Chillies Entertainment and filmmaker Onir, in the discussion – and will be talking about the importance of cinema, its shape shifting forms and how the imminent changes has triggered to the fabric of cinema.

Arjun Kapoor to turn master at Indian Film Festival of Melbourne

Arjun Kapoor to conduct a masterclass on the future of cinema at the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne next month.

As an actor with a flourishing career and the son of a successful producer, Arjun Kapoor has an innate understanding of the creative and commercial aspects of movies. That coupled with the fact that he is part of the current crop of actors navigating stardom in times of digital invasion makes him the perfect voice to analyse the growth of India cinema. It's only fitting then that Kapoor has been invited to the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne where he will spearhead the discussion on 'The Future Of Cinema'.

At a time when OTT platforms are churning out stories that can give films a run for their money, he will discuss their impact on the domestic box office, the change of template in storytelling, and whether he has contemplated jumping on the digital bandwagon. Joining him in the hour-long conversation on August 10 will be directors Sujoy Ghosh and Onir, Ajit Andhare, COO, Viacom Motion Pictures, and Gaurav Verma, business head, Red Chillies Entertainment.

"Understanding the perspectives of people from different places is always fun. This is my first time at the festival. I'm looking forward to exchanging notes about the future of cinema with the other members on the panel and the audiences. This diverse panel of speakers, each with an incredible body of work, is what Indian cinema is about today," says Kapoor, whose India's Most Wanted will be screened at the festival.

Shah Rukh Khan and Karan Johar are two of the biggest names of Bollywood. One is the King of Romance, while the other has defined romance and friendship for the Indian audience. Both these Bollywood bigwigs were snapped at the Mumbai airport last night as they headed to Melbourne. SRK will be felicitated with the Excellence in Cinema Award at the 10th edition of Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. He is also the chief guest at the festival. The actor will be presented the award by her excellency Linda Dessau, who is also the first female Governor of the State of Victoria. The felicitation will take place at the iconic Palais Theatre in Melbourne. Karan Johar too is the chief guest there and thus the duo was clicked late last night leaving for Australia.

While SRK sashayed into the airport looking dapper as ever in an all-black look, Karan too put his foot forward to travel in style.

Karan Tacker to turn host for IFFM 2019

Mumbai, Aug 7 Television actor Karan Tacker is all set to be the host of the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM) Awards Gala.

"I am looking forward to experiencing the IFFM frenzy first hand. With such prestigious guests attending the event like Shah Rukh Khan and Karan Johar, it will be an absolute honour to be in their presence. 2018 was a game changing year for the movies and the films that are nominated are reflective of how far we have come," Karan said in a statement.

The actor added that to be "introducing and discussing films itself will be an experience of a lifetime."

"Besides celebrating mainstream films like "Andhadhun", the festival is also pushing forward movies like Super Deluxe which stand for a cause worth talking about. Such endeavours are really the building blocks for any artiste and I am truly grateful to be a part of the event," he added.

Karan has previously hosted shows like "Nach Baliye".

EXCLUSIVE! Tabu reveals her toughest scene from AndhaDhun

Tabu in an interview to BollywoodLife opened up about the toughest scene in Sriram Raghavan's AndhaDhun

By Urmimala Banerjee ✉ | Published: August 6, 2019 5:52 PM IST

Bollywood's powerhouse actress Tabu is very happy that AndhaDhun will be screened at the Indian Film Festival at Melbourne. The film was one of the highest grossers of 2018 and has made a name for itself in India's modern cinematic history. Talking EXCLUSIVELY to BollywoodLife, Tabu said, "We never expected AndhaDhun to become such a hit and craze. The love has been overwhelming. We feel great knowing that the film is being discussed to date. Sriram Raghavan is a master story-teller. He took a long time to write the film. We feel very happy seeing our hard work being rewarded in this manner. I am really looking forward to the Indian Film Festival at Melbourne. I am excited about the conversation with Rajeev Masand. We hope the audience enjoys the film here as well."

Dr. Shahrukh Khan danced away with Melburnians obliging them with selfies

By Manju Mittal

'King Khan', as he is popularly known and admirably referred to as globally, was in Melbourne as the Chief Guest for the 10th Indian Film Festival of Melbourne, IFFM 2019. The most loved Bollywood actor and superstar Shahrukh Khan not just in India but worldwide had fans eating out of his palm as he obliged any selfie requests by them starting right at the Tullamarine airport soon as he landed. Covered in his beanie and surrounded by security guards, he came out and let the fans in the selfies who had braved the cold windy weather to get a glimpse of him, a pic that went viral. It was a busy four days with Shahrukh for his fans as he officially opened the IFFM (Indian Film Festival Melbourne) on Thursday August 8, with the press conference along with other special Festival guests, and festival director Mitu Bhowmick-Lange. La Trobe university conferred SRK (his short name) with 'Doctors of Letters' with hundreds of students of all denominations who had come to attend the ceremony as he was led in the doctoral robes by the Former Victorian Premier the Honourable John Brumby and Chancellor of La Trobe under the shower of falling confetti. Soon after he was doing the 'Lungi' dance with fans on the podium put up by the university.

Bollywood vies with cricket as India's national form of entertainment and its superstars dwarf anything imaginable in this country for their reach and influence – and Bollywood doesn't get much bigger than Shah Rukh Khan.

The 53-year-old "King" Khan has been a pillar of the Mumbai-centred film industry, which churns out thousands of movies in more than 20 languages each year, ever since he since broke through to the big time with 1992 movie Deewana.

Despite a few recent lean years in terms of hits, SRK, as he is universally known, remains big enough, and bankable enough, to voice Mufasa in the Hindi version of Disney's remake of the The Lion King. (His adult son voiced the role of Mufasa's son Simba.)

A 2014 Forbes ranking put his earnings at $600 million, higher than Tom Cruise. He has more followers on social media than cricket legend Sachin Tendulkar and has even parlayed his film success into India's other

Gurinder Chadha's coming of age story 'Blinded by the Lights' to close IFFM 2019

The Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM) 2019 will close its tenth edition with the screening of Gurinder Chadha's 'Blinded by the Lights'. Complete with Bollywood performances by children, Chadha will grace the occasion to take questions for the post-event interaction with the audience.

Based on the book by journalist Sarfaraz Manzoor, 'Blinded by the Light' has been lauded for its fresh narrative. It's said to be amongst the best coming of age stories from the subcontinent talking about the quintessential immigrant inside story from an all-new perspective. It's also a tribute to Bruce Springsteen's and his works

The film was first screened at the Sundance Film Festival earlier this year and bagged a mega worldwide distribution deal. It's scheduled for an India release later in the year.

The movie, featuring Viviek Kalra and HayleyAtwell along with Nell Williams in the lead, is Chadha's offering post 'Bend It Like Beckham' and 'Bride and Prejudice'.

Karan Johar wants Ranveer Singh, Janhvi Kapoor, Alia Bhatt in Kuch Kuch Hota Hai reboot

Filmmaker Karan Johar, who was recently in Australia to attend a special screening of his 1998 hit Kuch Kuch Hota Hai has revealed who he would like to watch in the film's reboot should one ever get made. He said he would have Ranveer Singh reprise Shah Rukh Khan's role from the film and Janhvi Kapoor in Rani Mukerji's role.

Speaking at the recently concluded Indian Film Festival of Melbourne, Karan said that he would cast Alia Bhatt for Kajol's role of Anjali. "On my wishlist would be Ranveer Singh as Rahul. He has that mad intensity as Shah Rukh Khan. Alia Bhatt as Anjali. She has the spunk and Janhvi Kapoor as Tina because she has the poise and balance of the part," he said during an audience interaction.

"I was ecstatic to meet SRK. Kajol and he had promised that they will do my first film. So I remembering going to meet him and I had no script whatsoever. I only had a scene in my mind. Which I narrated to him. And he bought into my bullshit. I told him if you like this one scene then I will narrate the entire film to you, which was completely a lie. Tabu, Urmila, Aishwarya turned me down and Ash was the only one who was polite to call me back. It took months to cast for Rani's part after Aditya Chopra recommended me her name," her further said.

Indraadip to start shooting for next

By - TNN | Bishwabijoy Mitre | Updated: Aug 16, 2019, 17:10 IST |

He has recently won National Award for his film, Kedara, but composer-director Indraadip Dasgupta has no time to celebrate his feat. When asked about where and when is he going to party, Indraadip said that the venue is not yet decided because celebration is not on the cards any time before September. Reason? He is all set to start shooting of his next film from August 24. Even though he is tight-lipped about the story and other details of the film, we learnt that it will be based on the life of an elderly woman. The film will talk about the lonely life of elderly people in metropolitan cities.

Earlier it was decided that Arpita will play the central character, but now Sohini Sarkar has been roped in for the lead role. Besides her, Abir Chatterjee and Mousumi Sanyal will also be seen in the film. "It took us about six months to complete the script and we are scheduled to wrap up the shoot within 15 days. The first day of the shoot will take place at the residence of Sidharta Shankar Ray," he added.

After this, Indraadip will work on a film titled Apu from January next year. As of now it is decided that Anirban Bhattacharya and Kaushik Ganguly will be part of the film. The shoot will take place across Kolkata and North Bengal. The story of the film is based on two girls and their fathers. While one girl is facing a problem with her father, the other girl and her father come to their rescue. "This is a story of relationships and how the characters face trouble due to time and situation," said Indraadip.

Speaking about Malaika and Arjun's last outing at IIFM, a video went viral on social media which showed Arjun being extra-protective towards her. It so happened that the event host Karan Tacker was complimenting Malaika over her looks. "I must say that even after a 20-hour flight, you look absolutely gorgeous," Karan is heard telling her in the video. Arjun then takes the mic and says, "Jaake peeche wali ke sath flirt karna (Go and flirt with the lady in the back)".

Before jetting off to Melbourne, Arjun Kapoor had accompanied Malaika Arora to her mother Joyce Polycarp's home at Almeida Park, Bandra. The duo was joined by Arora's sister, Amrita Arora Ladak and other family members.

On the professional front, Arjun is currently busy shooting for his historical drama, Panipat, which also stars Kriti Sanon and Sanjay Dutt in pivotal roles. Panipat is based on the Third Battle of Panipat fought between the Maratha Empire led by Sadashiv Rao Bhau and the invading forces of Ahmad Shah Abdali, the King of Afghanistan. The film is slated to release on December 6, 2019.

Apart from this historical drama, Arjun Kapoor will also appear in Sandeep Aur Pinky Faraar alongside Parineeti Chopra.

NEW DELHI: Actress Tabu feels the success of "Andhadhun" owes itself to the fact that it is not a formula film, and makes the audience re-think about it after a watch.

"It's difficult for me to break it down. 'Andhadhun' is not a formula film that became such a big success. If you make a formula film you can say it had this much action, songs or beautiful locales.

"But this film did not have any of these formulae, so that we may say it worked because of that. When the film is different and is successful, then you understand that it has appealed the in a different level," Tabu told IANS.

What makes the film so popular nationally and internationally?

"People have enjoyed it, thought about it, wondered about it, and people are still having a conversation about what happened in the end, and if the character was really blind or not.

"The film made people think, and that's the reason they saw it several times and (each time) they found out something different. It's the amazing writing, and thought process of (director) Sriram Raghavan (that made the difference). I wish I knew (what worked)," she added.

You might have seen SRK wowing the audience and the media at the press conference yesterday, to kick off the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne 2019. In its 10th year, the festival, which will began yesterday and runs until 17 August, has become more popular and prestigious than ever before. We're still getting used to the idea that Shah Rukh 'King' Khan is the chief guest and will be at the festival in flesh and bone. What else is on the agenda? Here are the Top 10 things to look forward to at the 10th anniversary of IFFM this year.

10. The venue: Besides Hoyts Chadstone and Highpoint, movies from this year's Festival will be held at the newly-built, super trendy Hoyts District Docklands, a brand spanking new 8-screen Hoyts cinema situated in the Docklands precinct, opposite the Melbourne Star Ferris wheel. With features like recliners, Xtremescreen theatres (and a Ben & Jerry's!), this venue will ensure your movie-watching experience is lit.

Tabu feels Andhadhun owes its success to the fact that it is not a formula film and makes the audience re-think about it even after they're done watching it.

"It's difficult for me to break it down. Andhadhun is not a formula film that became such a big success. If you make a formula film, you can say it had this much action, songs or beautiful locales. But this film did not have any of these formulae, so we can't say it worked because of that. When the film is different and is successful, then you understand that it has appealed to the audience at a different level," Tabu said.

In an earlier interview with DNA, Tabu also decoded the film's cliffhanger ending, which still has the audience talking. "I also want to understand what really happened, but Sriram (Raghavan; director) is not ready to reveal. He is okay with any theory about the story. I also believe what you see is what you think. As far as I am concerned, Simi (her character) died and Ayushmann is actually blind in the end. Whether he is lying or telling the truth we don't know," she said.

On the film's continued popularity both in India and across the world, she said, "People have enjoyed it, thought about it, wondered about it, and people are still having a conversation about what happened in the end, and if the character was really blind or not. The film made people think, and that's the reason they saw it several times and (each time) they found out something different. The film, which also features Ayushmann Khurrana and Radhika Apte, has been travelling to international film festivals like the Indian Film Festival of Los Angeles and now will also be screened at Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. Karan Johar's Kuch Kuch Hota Hai completes 21 years in October. The filmmaker recently held a premiere of his debut film at the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. During the Q&A session, KJo was asked to share his dream cast for a contemporary remake of KKHH. The director responded — “On my wishlist would be Ranveer Singh as Rahul. He has that mad intensity as Shah Rukh Khan. Alia Bhatt as Anjali. She has the spunk and Janhvi Kapoor as Tina because she has the poise and balance of the part.”

Sharing an anecdote about how he cast the original film, Karan recalled, “I was ecstatic to meet SRK. Kajol and he had promised that they will do my first film. So I remember going to meet him and I had no script whatsoever. I only had a scene in my mind. Which I narrated to him. And he bought into my bullshit. I told him if you like this one scene then I will narrate the entire film to you, which was completely a lie.”

He continued, “Tabu, Urmila, Aishwarya turned me down and Ash was the only one who was polite to call me back. It took months to cast for Rani’s part after Aditya Chopra recommended me her name.”

Based on the book by journalist Sarfaraz Manzoor, 'Blinded by the Light' has been lauded for its fresh narrative. It's said to be amongst the best coming of age stories from the sub continent talking about the quintessential immigrant inside story from a lived in perspective. It's also a tribute to Bruce Springsteen's and his works

The film was first screened at the Sundance Film Festival earlier this year and bagged a mega worldwide distribution deal. It's scheduled for an India release this week.

The movie, featuring Viviek Kalra and HayleyAtwell along with Nell Williams in the lead, is Chadha's offering post Bend It Like Beckham and Bride and Prejudice.

Mitu Bhowmick Lange said, "Soaked in all issues and things close to our hearts, this is the film that will have a strong connect with the audience. Every Indian in Melbourne will feel in sync with the story as it is a narrative replete with stories close to their hearts. The universal story of immigrants said with the most personal touch."

Released in 1998 'Kuch Kuch Hota Hai' is one of the most loved Karan Johar movies. A special screening of the same was recently held in Australia, and Karan Johar attended it. While he was there, the filmmaker unveiled that if ever 'Kuch Kuch Hota Hai' gets a reboot, he would like to see Ranveer Singh filling in the shoes of Shah Rukh Khan, Janhvi Kapoor bringing the character played by Rani Mukerji and Alia Bhatt portraying the role essayed by Kajol.

Speaking at the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne, Karan said, "On my wishlist would be Ranveer Singh as Rahul. He has that mad intensity as Shah Rukh Khan. Alia Bhatt as Anjali. She has the spunk and Janhvi Kapoor as Tina because she has the poise and balance of the part."

He further added, "I was ecstatic to meet SRK. Kajol and he had promised that they will do my first film. So I remember going to meet him and I had no script whatsoever. Bollywood's market is hot on the remake of filmmaker Karan Johar's iconic film "Kuch Kuch Hota Hai" and fans want Karan to make a remake of the film. Now, new news has emerged about it.

Arjuna's big statement on Karan and Joya, said it was quite cool

Karan used to name Ranbir Kapoor, Alia and Jahanvi when Karan was asked about its remake and star cast earlier, but now Karan Johar seems to have changed his mood on Rahul's character and now Ranbir is not in Rahul's character, rather he wants to bring Ranveer Singh. So that's why, in the past, when it came to star casts, he took Ranveer's name instead of Ranbir.

In terms of fitness, Mr Bajaj outdoes Anurag, watch the video!

In fact, when a student questioned the star cast of the remake of "Kuch Kuch Hota Hai" from Karan, who arrived at the Melbourne Indian Film Festival to host the premiere in the joy of having 20 years of filming, Ranvir Singh, Alia Bhatt and Jahanvi Kapoor. Now it seems that Ranveer Singh has snatched the remake of the film from Ranbir Kapoor.

New Delhi: One of the most stylish couples in Bollywood, Arjun Kapoor and Malaika Arora on Monday returned from Australia where they had gone to attend the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne. The duo was spotted at the Mumbai airport by shutterbugs as they made their way out of the airport. And needless to say that both Arjun and Malla were at their fashionable best as they arrived back at the bay!

A diva in a true sense, Malaika was seen wearing white on white and teamed the outfit with a black overcoat. She completed her look with nude pumps. Arjun, who has been sporting the 'Panipat' look for the past few months, looked uber cool in a brown jacket which he wore over a black tee and denim. The duo complimented each other with stylish shades.

Take a look at their pictures from Mumbai airport today:

Karan Tacker to turn host for IFFM 2019

Mumbai, Aug 7 Television actor Karan Tacker is all set to be the host of the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM) Awards Gala.

"I am looking forward to experiencing the IFFM frenzy first hand. With such prestigious guests attending the event like Shah Rukh Khan and Karan Johar, it will be an absolute honour to be in their presence. 2018 was a game changing year for the movies and the films that are nominated are reflective of how far we have come," Karan said in a statement.

The actor added that to be "introducing and discussing films itself will be an experience of a lifetime."

"Besides celebrating mainstream films like "Andhadhun", the festival is also pushing forward movies like Super Deluxe which stand for a cause worth talking about. Such endeavours are really the building blocks for any artiste and I am truly grateful to be a part of the event," he added.

Karan has previously hosted shows like "Nach Baliye".

EXCLUSIVE! Tabu reveals her toughest scene from AndhaDhun

Tabu in an interview to BollywoodLife opened up about the toughest scene in Sriram Raghavan's AndhaDhun

Bollywood's powerhouse actress Tabu is very happy that AndhaDhun will be screened at the Indian Film Festival at Melbourne. The film was one of the highest grossers of 2018 and has made a name for itself in India's modern cinematic history. Talking EXCLUSIVELY to BollywoodLife, Tabu said, "We never expected AndhaDhun to become such a hit and craze. The love has been overwhelming. We feel great knowing that the film is being discussed to date. Sriram Raghavan is a master story-teller. He took a long time to write the film. We feel very happy seeing our hard work being rewarded in this manner. I am really looking forward to the Indian Film Festival at Melbourne. I am excited about the conversation with Rajeev Masand. We hope the audience enjoys the film here as well."

Shah Rukh Khan to be felicitated with 'Excellence in Cinema' award by Victorian Government

Shah Rukh Khan has already been an awardee of various different honours for his contribution to Indian cinema. Just last month Shah Rukh Khan was announced to receive an honorary doctorate degree from Melbourne-based La Trobe University for his contributions and efforts towards underprivileged children, women's empowerment through Meer Foundation and his achievements in the Indian entertainment industry. Khan, who will be visiting Australia to attend the 10th edition of Indian Film Festival of Melbourne (IFFM) in August as its chief guest, said having his humanitarian endeavours recognised for the first time by the country was a great honour.

La Trobe will present Khan with his Honorary Doctorate on August 9 at its Melbourne campus in Bundoora. The La Trobe University Vice-Chancellor John Dewar, said the actor's philanthropic leadership closely aligns with the university's values. "Khan is a champion of societal change whose efforts to support the equality of women in India reflect La Trobe's values of inclusiveness, equity and social justice," Dewar said.

Indian Film Festival: Shah Rukh Khan to be presented Excellence in Cinema award

BY DB POST DIGITAL // AUGUST 3, 2019

Shah Rukh Khan will be presented the Excellence in Cinema award at the 10th edition of Indian Film Festival of Melbourne on August 8.

SRK will be felicitated with the award by Linda Dessau, who was sworn in as Victoria's 29th Governor, the first female in the role.

The felicitation ceremony will be held at the Palais Theatre in Melbourne.

Shah Rukh is also the chief guest at the festival, which will celebrate courage as its central theme in 2019.

Keeping with the festival's theme of celebrating courage, it wants to pay tribute to SRK's ceaseless contribution to cinema and popular culture in India with this award.

"I'm humbled and honoured for this recognition. It will be a great experience to share the stage and the podium with my fellow industry members who are all coming from various parts of India to celebrate cinema in Melbourne."

"I look forward to meeting her excellency, Linda Dessau, at the wonderful evening that has been planned by IFFM," said Shah Rukh.

Festival director Mitu Bhowmick Lange added: "When we think of one of the pioneers of Hindi cinema, Khan's contribution ranks amongst the highest. He has established Hindi cinema as a global phenomenon, leaving an impact on millions across the world."

"We are looking forward to the evening and to be conferring him with this honour. He's an iconic figure for Indian cinema and this honour is in tandem with his tremendous years of contribution."

रिपोर्ट / सलमान एक साथ कई प्रोजेक्ट्स में बिजी, एक्सलेंस इन सिनेमा पुरस्कार से सम्मानित होंगे शाहरुख

Dainik Bhaskar | Aug 03, 2019, 11:37 AM IST

चार प्रोजेक्ट में करेंगे काम

- अगस्त की शुरुआत में: दबंग 3 के अगले शेड्यूल में वे फिल्म के लिए कुछ प्रमोशनल सीन शूट करेंगे। इन दृश्यों में उन्हें लीन बोडी दिखाना है, जिसमें इतने के लिए उन्होंने धोड़ा पतल लिया है।
• अगस्त के दूसरे सप्ताह में: संजय लीला भंडारकी की फिल्म 'इंशाअल्लाह' की शूटिंग शुरू कर देंगे। इसकी शूटिंग पारापसी और फ्लोरिडा में होगी।
• सितंबर की शुरुआत में: लीला पर चर्चित रियलिटी शो 'बिग बॉस' के अगले सीजन में जुड़ेंगे। इसकी शूटिंग और प्रमोशनल शुरू कर देंगे।
• इन सप्ताहों की होने के बाद वे किफ 2, मेरेवन का हिंदी रीमेक और एक अन्य फिल्म की शूटिंग करेंगे।
• अगस्त के अंत में: इस दौरान जो पता मिलेगा उसमें वे कुछ ब्रांड शूट करने के साथ ही यूएस का टूर भी करेंगे। इसी टूर में उनका एक स्पेशल इंटरव्यू भी होगा और साथ में उनके सिंग और डिंजर फ़मल खान भी लाइव परफॉर्म करेंगे।

लिंडा डिस्टाऊ के हाथों शाहरुख को होंगे सम्मानित

2. साहस्रनाम खान को एक्सलेंस इन सिनेमा पुरस्कार से 8 अगस्त को इंडियन फिल्म फेडरेशन और मेकअप की अर्पिई लाइव में पुरस्कृत किया जाएगा। इस फेडरेशन में साहस्रनाम खान बर्लिन चौक गेस्ट शामिल होंगे और फेडरेशन की ओपनिंग फिल्म का अंजाज करेंगे। साहस्रनाम को यह अर्पिई विंटरोरिया की गर्दिन हर एक्सलेंसी लिंडा डिस्टाऊ के हाथों दिया जाएगा। यह पुरस्कार की पहली फीमेल गार्डनर है। साहस्रनाम को यह पुरस्कार इसलिए दिया जा रहा है, क्योंकि वे दो दशक से बॉलीवुड के सुपर स्टार रहे हैं। उन्हें हिंदी सिनेमा का एक सन माना जाता है। साथ ही उन्होंने अपनी फिल्मों और अपनी इन्वेंशन लाइव स्टेजे से लोगों को प्रभावित किया है। यह पुरस्कार उन्हें इसलिए भी दिया जा रहा है, क्योंकि उन्होंने हिंदी सिनेमा के कल्चर को देश-दुनिया में बढ़ावा दिया है।

SRK to be honoured with 'Excellence in Cinema' award in Melbourne

8 August, 2019 12:00 AM

Shah Rukh Khan will be felicitated with the 'Excellence in Cinema' award at the 10th edition of Indian Film Festival of Melbourne which will be held on August 8. The felicitation will take place at the Palais Theatre here. The actor will receive the award by Linda Dessau, who was sworn in as Victoria's 29th Governor, the first female in the role, reports mid-day.

Shah Rukh is also the chief guest at the festival. The 10th edition of Indian Film Festival of Melbourne will celebrate courage as its central theme in 2019. "I'm humbled and honoured for this recognition.

It will be a great experience to share the stage and the podium with my fellow industry members who are all coming from various parts of India to celebrate cinema in Melbourne.

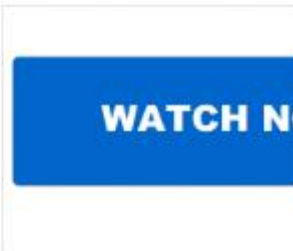

"I look forward to meeting her excellency, Linda Dessau, at the wonderful evening that has been planned by IFFM," said Shah Rukh. The actor has left no stone unturned to make the work go weak in the knees with his chocolate boy avatar: SRK, who has been entertaining the audience since the early 90s with movies such as Deewana, Dilwale Dulhania Le Jayenge and My Name is Khan, is currently on the peak of success.

Festival director Mitu Bhowmick Langa added: "When we think of one of the pioneers of Hindi cinema, Mr Khan's contribution ranks amongst the highest. He has established Hindi cinema as a global phenomenon, leaving an impact on millions across the world.

We are looking forward to the evening and to be conferring him with this honour. He's an iconic figure for Indian cinema and this honour is in tandem with his tremendous years of contribution."

On the work front, SRK was last seen along with son Aryan as voiceover artists for King Mufasa and son Simba in The Lion King's Hindi version.

The film follows the adventures of Simba, who is to succeed his father Mufasa as King of the Pride Lands and narrates a tale of how he rises up to the occasion despite several attempts to bring him down by his villainous uncle Scar. The film released in India on July 19 in English, Hindi, Tamil and Telugu.

Shah Rukh to be felicitated with Excellence in Cinema award

POSTED BY: GOPI | AUGUST 4, 2019

Melbourne, Aug 5 (IANS) Shah Rukh Khan, the superstar of Hindi cinema, will be felicitated with the Excellence in Cinema award at the 10th edition of Indian Film Festival of Melbourne on August 5.

SRK will be presented the award by Linda Dessau, who was sworn in as Victoria's 29th Governor, the first female in the role. The felicitation will take place at the Palais Theatre here.

Shah Rukh is also the chief guest at the festival, which will celebrate courage as its central theme in 2019.

Keeping with the festival's theme of celebrating courage, it wants to pay tribute to SRK's continuous contribution to cinema and popular culture in India with this award.

"I'm humbled and honoured for this recognition. It will be a great experience to share the stage and the podium with my fellow industry members who are all coming from various parts of India to celebrate cinema in Melbourne.

"I look forward to meeting her excellency, Linda Dessau, at the wonderful evening that has been planned by IFFM," said Shah Rukh, who has been entertaining masses since early '90s with movies such as 'Deewana', 'Dilwale Dulhania Le Jayenge' and 'My Name is Khan'.

Festival director Mitu Bhowmick Lange added: "When we think of one of the pioneers of Hindi cinema, Mr. Khan's contribution ranks amongst the highest. He has established Hindi cinema as a global phenomenon, leaving an impact on millions across the world.

"We are looking forward to the evening and to be conferring him with this honour. He's an iconic figure for Indian cinema and this honour is in tandem with his tremendous years of contribution."

मेलबर्न में भारतीय फिल्म महोत्सव के पुरस्कार कार्यक्रम के दौरान सुपरस्टार शाहरुख खान को आठ अगस्त को 'एक्सीलेंस इन सिनेमा' पुरस्कार से सम्मानित किया जाएगा।

समारोह में पुरस्कार के जरिए सिनेमा और भारत में लोकप्रिय संस्कृति में अभिनेता के लगातार योगदान के लिए उन्हें पुरस्कार प्रदान किया जाएगा।

शाहरुख खान इस समारोह के मुख्य अतिथि होंगे जिन्हें लिडा डेसाऊ यह पुरस्कार प्रदान करेंगी। डेसाऊ स्टेट ऑफ विक्टोरिया की पहली महिला गवर्नर हैं।

किंग खान का एक शानदार अनुभव-

शाहरुख खान ने एक बयान में कहा, 'मैं इसे विनम्रता से स्वीकार करता हूँ और सम्मानित महसूस कर रहा हूँ। मेलबर्न में जश्न मनाने के लिए भारत के विभिन्न हिस्सों से आने वाले फिल्म जगत के अपने साथी सदस्यों के साथ मंच साझा करना एक शानदार अनुभव होगा।'

उन्होंने कहा, 'आईएफएफएम द्वारा आयोजित शानदार शाम में महामहिम लिडा डेसाऊ के साथ मुलाकात को लेकर उत्साहित हूँ!'

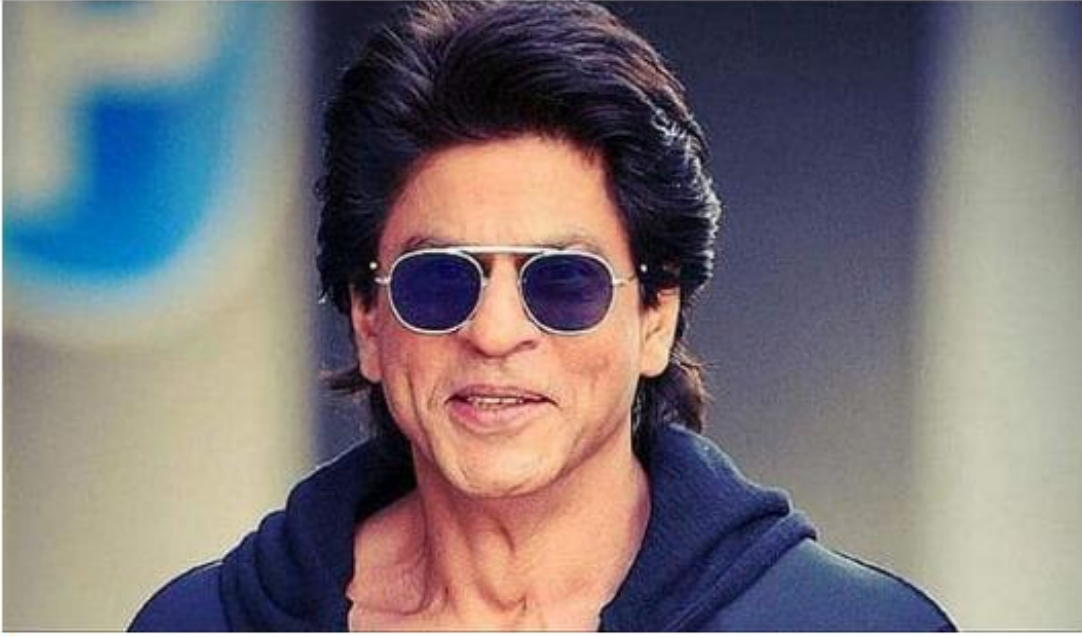

बात करें अगर वर्कफ्रंट की तो वह पिछले साल 'ज़ीरो' फिल्म में नज़र आए थे। इस फिल्म में कैटरिना कैफ और अनुष्का शर्मा भी लीड रोल में थीं। हालांकि, ये मूवी दर्शकों की उम्मीदों पर खरी नहीं उतर सकी थी।
